to clearly communicate the message of the display.

- The sponsor must sign an agreement in advance of installing a display.
- Tape of any kind, nails, push pins, and other hardware may NOT be used in the display case. The only exception is suction cups for use on glass.

Policy for Mooresville Public Library Bulletin Board

Approved and adopted February 6, 2006

A. Purpose

The library maintains a bulletin board and information rack which are available for the posting of information related to educational, cultural, intellectual, or charitable activities and events. In order to avoid the appearance of an endorsement, the library will not post notices of partisan political, religious or commercial events or activities. The presence of a poster, brochure, flyer, or any other notice in the library does not indicate that the library or its board either advocates or endorses the viewpoints expressed.

B. Conditions for Display

1. Designated staff shall review items to be posted in the library to determine compliance with this policy. The Library Director shall make the final determination of compliance. Decisions may be appealed in writing to the Library Board of Trustees.
2. Materials to be displayed should be delivered to the Main Desk. Designated staff or volunteers will post approved materials on the bulletin board and information rack. The library will remove items that have not been posted by the library designees.
3. Materials must conform to the space and time restrictions will be enforced.
4. Approved materials will be posted by the library designee in the appropriate section of the bulleting board or the information rack.
5. Designated staff or volunteers will remove materials as they become outdated and will remove items that have been posted for an excessive amount of time. The library cannot be responsible for their return.

C. Arrangement of Bulletin Board

1. The bulletin board is limited in size; therefore the library designee will arrange the placement of all literature or noticed.
 - Materials periodically will be rotated and/or discarded
 - Materials will not be posted any sooner than one month prior to the event and will be removed and discarded after the event.
 - No classification notices, business cards or ads shall be posted on library bulletin board.
2. The size of all materials to be displayed shall not exceed 18" X 24".
3. Materials provided for display in the information rack will be considered eligible for display and are available in quantity.
