

Kids who read are lifelong learners!

You already know
that, but did you know Mooresville Public Library is here to assist you

in creating lifelong learners?

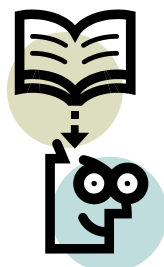

- Do you want someone to stop by your classroom to talk about the latest books? Done!
- Is there a certain unit that you need materials for yesterday? Call us!
- Want an inexpensive yet fun field trip? MPL is the place!
- Have kids in your class begging for specific books and have no idea where to get ten copies of Diary of a Wimpy Kid? Email us!
- Want free technology resources for your classroom via the web? We've got an app for that.

MOORESVILLE
Public Library

“Casey will bring materials that relate to the theme I’m teaching. The kids get so excited about reading, they literally fight over books in the library! I have seen kids that aren’t readers become readers because of booktalks.”

—Angela Pugh, 6th Grade
at North Madison

Getting a Library Card

- If you are a resident of Brown Township, bring a photo ID to Mooresville Public Library, and we'll be happy to issue one to you.
- If you are a resident of Morgan County, but not Brown Township, grab your photo ID and a recent piece of mail to stop by your local branch of the Morgan County Library to get your card. It will be valid at MPL as well.
- If you are a resident of Guilford Township, head over to Plainfield-Guilford Township Public Library with your photo ID to get your card. It will be valid at MPL as well.
- If you are a resident of Decatur, Marion County, or elsewhere, you can get an "Educator" card at MPL. Bring in your photo ID and dated proof of employment at MCSC, and we'll get you a card that can be used at MPL.

Any questions, please call circulation at MPL and we'll be glad to assist you!
