Baseball

Baseball Schedule 1946-1947
M. H. S.   Opponent
8        Martinville 9
10       Brownsburg 10
6        Manual 13
3        Decatur Central 16
4        Martinville 15
2        Plainfield 7
0        Manual 8
0        Lawrence Central 9
2        Danville 21
1        Clayton 7

Asst. Coach Cox
Coach Biseli

Coaches & Managers

The two men who are largely responsible for making this year's athletic program a success have been pictured below. They are coaches John Van Liew and Wallace Potter. The teams have expressed their gratitude for the guidance of these two men in the wonderful cooperation they have shown during the year.

In the lower left picture are the football student managers - - Malcom Pygman Robert Lewis, and Charles Gregory.

Bennie Fiscus (lower right) has served the basketball team as student manager during all of his four high-school years.
Activities
Co-Editors

Bennie Ficus and Barbara Head were co-editors of the 1948 annual, and, as the picture shows, were up to their necks in "Wagon Trails". This huge dummy was constructed for a publicity stunt and was later placed in one of the store windows downtown.

The co-editors were kept busy cutting and mounting pictures, compiling data for write-ups, and meeting deadlines. They are justly proud of the results of their efforts in a new and better style annual.

Annual Staff

Co-operation and efficiency are two virtues that are essential if a class plans to put out a yearbook. The co-editors give most grateful thanks for the one hundred per cent co-operation and the reliable and superior workmanship that all the members of the staff, committees, and our class sponsors have shown in the producing of this book. Not only is the staff happy to be able to print this annual, but in doing so, they recall many pleasant memories.

In choosing a staff an attempt was made to give an opportunity to those individuals with special talent and also to those unsuspecting souls who signified their willingness to serve on the various committees. We believe this year's staff to be representative of the best at Mooresville High School in talent, wit, cleverness, style, and efficiency.

This is the result of both work and play, and the credit of its production goes to no one individual, but to all those who were willing to help in producing this book and our class sponsors who were so patient and understanding.

PAGE FIFTY-EIGHT

PAGE FIFTY-NINE
Co-Editors

Bennie Ficus and Barbara Head were co-editors of the 1948 annual, and, as the picture shows, were up to their necks in "Wagon Trails". This huge dummy was constructed for a publicity stunt and was later placed in one of the store windows downtown.

The co-editors were kept busy cutting and mounting pictures, compiling data for write-ups, and meeting deadlines. They are justly proud of the results of their efforts in a new and better style annual.

Annual Staff

Co-operation and efficiency are two virtues that are essential if a class plans to put out a yearbook. The co-editors give most grateful thanks for the one hundred percent co-operation and the reliable and superior workmanship that all the members of the staff, committees, and our class sponsors have shown in the producing of this book. Not only is the staff happy to be able to print this annual, but in doing so, they recall many pleasant memories.

In choosing a staff an attempt was made to give an opportunity to those individuals with special talent and also to those unsuspecting souls who signified their willingness to serve on the various committees. We believe this year's staff to be representative of the best at Mooresville High School in talent, wit, cleverness, style, and efficiency.

This is the result of both work and play, and the credit of its production goes to no one individual, but to all those who were willing to help in producing this book and our class sponsors who were so patient and understanding.
Our school publication, which keeps us informed as to the latest happenings both on and off the campus, is known as the “Campus Crier”. The 1948 staff has proved to be very efficient, and each member has been partly responsible for the success of this year's paper. This paper has been so arranged that anyone can enjoy reading it due to its varied subject matter.

The production staff is shown in the top picture, and in the bottom picture we find the editorial staff.

Joan Graham is editor and Fleeta McMillin is assistant editor; both of these girls are members of the senior class. Faculty advisers are Mrs. Eggleston and Miss McCleary.
Our school publication, which keeps us informed as to the latest happenings both on and off the campus, is known as the "Campus Crier". The 1948 staff has proved to be very efficient, and each member has been partly responsible for the success of this year's paper. This paper has been so arranged that anyone can enjoy reading it due to its varied subject matter.

The production staff is shown in the top picture, and in the bottom picture we find the editorial staff.

Joan Graham is editor and Flota Mollin is assistant editor; both of these girls are members of the senior class. Faculty advisers are Mrs. Eggleston and Miss McCleary.
Our Junior Play

SPOOKY TAVERN

Cast

Lon Hacker
Gwen Hugman
Larry Hacker
Joyce Wingate
Floriabel Wingate
Ralph Channing
Bedelia
Terry Tanner
Willy Worwe
Bartie Simms
Pawnee

Synopsis

A thriller from beginning to end, SPOOKY TAVERN was a howling success.

The scene opened when the two college girls, Joyce and Florabel Wingate, being low on finances, decided to buy an old tavern and turn it into a tea room.

Bedelia, the colored mammy who looks after the girls, was frightened by all the odd and spooky happenings and added much humor to the mystery.

It was a bad and rainy night and some of the college fellows came to take the pick back to town. It so happened the bridge was washed out and they were all forced to stay at the tavern, owned by a spiritualistic medium and her brother.

Another guest at the tavern was a stuttering freshman who was to spend the night at this so-called haunted tavern as an initiation stunt.

The play continued with many strange and supernatural happenings and murders enacted by ghosts, followed by scenes of agony from the frightened guests. Everything Willy and Bedalia.

In the end the characters disclosed who they were and we learned they were all students at college, with the exceptions of Willie's uncle and Bedalia, who acted out the initiation stunt in hopes of curing Willie of being a detective story addict.

Our Senior Play

CRACKED NUTS

CAST

Drucilla Nutt
Mrs. Garfinkle
Delicious Appleby
Constitution Jones
Peggy Nutt
Ginger Nutt
Pete Beamish
Billy Beamish
Magnolia Langford
Professor Beamish
Adelbert DeWeese
Mrs. Dewyane DeWeese

SYNOPSIS

Rich Miss Drucilla Nutt, never having had the opportunity of a higher education, is determined her nieces, Peggy and Ginger Nutt, shall go to college. They can't have the allowance, go to the movies or have beau; all they can do is study to become old maid school teachers!

Aunt Drucilla must leave for a rest cure. She orders her housekeeper, the mournful Mrs. Garfinkle, to keep a strict eye on her rebellious nieces.

Desperate for some “good time” money, Peggy and Ginger decide to rent rooms. Their boy friends, Pete and Billy Beamish, two slap-happy freshmen, inveigle their uncle, Professor Abimelech Beamish, to move into the Nutt mansion.

Another paying guest looms on the horizon - - Magnolia Langford, a widow from the “deals” old Southland, who is looking for a rich husband.

Last to arrive are Drucilla’s fiance, Adelbert DeWeese, and his riteocratic mamma, who is bent upon capturing Drucilla’s money for her precious boy.

(Continued on page seventy-four)
Our Junior Play

SPOOKY TAVERN

Cast

Lon Hacker
Ghost Woman
Larry Hacker
Joyce Wingate
Florabel Wingate
Ralph Channing
Bedelia
Terry Tanner
Willie Wargle
Blinkie Simms
Pauze

Synopsis
A thriller from beginning to end, SPOOKY TAVERN was a howling success.
The scene opened when the two college girls, Joyce and Florabel Wingate, being low on finances, decided to buy an old tavern and turn it into a tea room.
Bedelia, the colored mammy who looks after the girls, was frightened by all the odd and spooky happenings and added much humor to the mystery.
It was a bad and rainy night and some of the college fellows came to take the pick from the tavern. It so happened the bridge was washed out and they were all forced to stay at the tavern, owned by a spiritualistic medium and her brother.
Another guest at the tavern was a stuttering freshman who was not going to spend the night at this so-called haunted tavern as an initiation stunt.
The play continued with many strange and supernatural happenings and murders enacted by ghosts, followed by scenes of agony from the frightened guests, especially Willy and Bedelia.
In the end the characters disclosed who they were and we learned they were all students at college, with the exception of Willie's uncle and Bedelia, who acted out the initiation stunt in hopes of curing Willie of being a detective story addict.

Our Senior Play

CRACKED NUTS

Cast

Drusilla Nutt
Mrs. Garfinkle
Delicious Appleby
Confusion Jones
Peggy Nutt
Ginger Nutt
Pete Beamish
Billy Beamish
Magnolia Langford
Professor Beamish
Adelbert DeWeese

Synopsis
Rich Miss Drusilla Nutt, never having had the opportunity of a higher education, is determined to have her nieces, Peggy and Ginger Nutt, go to college. They can't have allowances, go to the movies or have beaux; all they can do is study to become old maid school teachers!
Aunt Drusilla must leave for a rest cure. She orders her housekeeper, the mean-spirited Mrs. Garfinkle, to keep a strict eye on her rebellious nieces.
Desperate for some "good time" money, Peggy and Ginger decide to rent rooms.
Their boy friends, Pete and Billy Beamish, two slap-happy freshmen, inveigle their uncle, Professor Abimelech Beamish, to move into the Nutt mansion.
Another paying guest looms on the horizon - Magnolia Langford, a widow from the "deeds" old southland, who is looking for a rich husband.
Last to arrive are Drusilla's fiancé, Adelbert DeWeese, and his riteocratic mamma, who is bent upon capturing Drusilla's money for her precious boy.

(Continued on page seventy-four)
Band

This is our band marching in full swing! It is directed by Miss Helen Martin, and it consists of forty bandmen. They have played for the Armistice Day parade, Christmas concert, and have participated in band and solo contests.

This year they have been busy campaigning for the purchase of a drum major—by selling pencils, pennants, or personalized stationery.

1947 - 1948 officers are Janet Carisle, president; Jacqueline Earles, secretary; Martha Crookhite, treasurer; and Martha Ann Dake, student director. Band majors for the year are Iris Keltner and Helen Poo.

Chorus

Miss Dailey is director of both the mixed chorus and girls' glee club. Both groups have been very active during the past year and have had a lot of fun participating in local, districts, and state choral activities.

With the help of the junior high school chorus and the Mothers' Club, we now have a nice sum in our Choral Robe Fund, and we expect to have those beautiful robes by next fall.

We hope that in future years more of our boys can be encouraged to join the choral organizations, for, without them, we cannot boast a strong choral department for M.H.S.
Band

This is our band marching in full swing! It is directed by Miss Helen Martin, and it consists of forty bandmen. They have played for the Armistice Day parade, Christmas concert, and have participated in band and solo contests.

This year they have been busy campaigning for the purchase of a drum major-style uniform. Perhaps you have been approached by a bandman selling pencils, pennants, or personalized stationery.

1947 - 1948 officers are Janet Carlisle, president; Jacquelyn Earls, secretary; Martha Crenkhite, treasurer; and Martha Ann Dake, student director. Band majors for the year are Iris Keltner and Helen Poe.

Chorus

Miss Dailey is director of both the mixed chorus and girls' glee club. Both groups have been very active during the past year and have had a lot of fun participating in local, district, and state choral activities.

With the help of the junior high school chorus and the Mothers' Club, we now have a nice sum in our Choral Robe Fund, and we expect to have those beautiful robes by next fall.

We hope that in future years more of our boys can be encouraged to join the choral organizations, for, without them, we cannot boast a strong choral department for M.H.S.
I. I. A. & Knitting Club

SEATED: E. Denny, B. Stenberg, M. Overpeck, S. Stanley, Miss Ragdale.

STANDING: M. J. Fields, M. Rose, B. Martin, E. Cooper, M. M. Swinney, M. Johnson, Mrs. Eggleston.

SEATED: M. Isaacs, B. Smitherman, L. Swinney, T. Golay, B. Ferguson.

Lettermen's Club & G. A. A.

ROW THREE: Mrs. Hassan-Director, J. Gunnel, B. Goldman, E. Cooper, M. Johnson, J. Francis, M. McDaniel, C. Rice.
J. I. A. & Knitting Club

SEATED: E. Denny, B. Stembel, M. Overpeck, S. Stanley, Miss Ragdall.

STANDING: M. J. Fields, M. Rone, B. Martin, E. Cooper, M. M. Swinney, M. Johnson, Mrs. Eggelston.

Lettermen’s Club & G. A. A.

ROW THREE: Mrs. Hassan-Director, J. Gunnell, B. Goldman, E. Cooper, M. Johnson, J. Francis, M. McDaniel, C. Rice.
In The Newby Building

Mrs. Harshman and Mrs. Marine at work in the kitchen of the cafeteria.

Mrs. Aldrich looking after one of her many patients.

We have appreciated the well-balanced meals that Mrs. Harshman and her helper have prepared for us this year and that have caused us to ask eagerly, “What's for dinner today?”

Besides warning us against sore throats and colds, we find that Mrs. Aldrich, our school nurse, is kept busy treating us for a million other things. When we are in need of medical assistance we realize what is meant by her being an “Angel of Mercy”.

Mr. Wayne Johnson is a recent graduate from the School of Agriculture of Purdue University. He was selected as instructor of the Veterans' class “Institutional On-Farm Training.” They meet at the local school one night a week. Mr. Johnson visits each Veteran on his farm twice each month to discuss the Veterans' individual farm problems.

Cub Scouts

ROW THREE: Herman Dewar, Wayne Vinson, Bruce Storms, Allan Tutewiler, Robert Keltner, Jimmy Hemley, Bruce Sheets, Reed Warriner.
Mrs. Harshman and Mrs. Marine at work in the kitchen of the cafeteria.

Mrs. Aldrich looking after one of her many patients.

We have appreciated the well-balanced meals that Mrs. Harshman and her helper have prepared for us this year and that have caused us to ask eagerly, "What's for dinner today?"

Besides warning us against sore throats and colds, we find that Mrs. Aldrich, our school nurse, is kept busy treating us for a million other things. When we are in need of medical assistance we realize what is meant by her being an "Angel of Mercy".

Mr. Wayne Johnson is a recent graduate from the School of Agriculture of Purdue University. He was selected as instructor of the Veterans' class "Institutional On-Farm Training." They meet at the local school one night a week. Mr. Johnson visits each Veteran on his farm twice each month to discuss the Veterans' individual farm problems.

Cub Scouts

ROW THREE: Herman Dzwars, Wayne Vinson, Bruce Storms, Allan Tutewiler, Robert Keltner, Jimmy Hensley, Bruce Sheets, Reed Warriner.
In the lower picture are Mr. Hillman and Mr. Dehoney, the two men who have the enormous task of cleaning up after the students, a few of whom are pictured above in the assembly. Fixing a leaky water fountain, repairing a broken blind, and replacing a smashed window pane are just a few of the many tasks performed by "Jim and Charlie".

School Calendar 1947 – 1948

Sept. 5 Everyone was present for it was organizing day.
16 First football game. Charleston.
19 Danville vs. M. H. S.
24-26 Freshmen Initiation. Some fun!
27 University vs. M. H. S.

Oct. 3 Election of class officers and sponsors. Jassville vs. M. H. S.
10 Brownsburg vs. M. H. S.
13 Entertained by Mr. Cruse, magician.
17 Plainfield vs. M. H. S.
21 Junior class play—"A Little Honey".
22 Greenwood vs. M. H. S.
24 Choral festival
31 Community Hallowe’en Party

Nov. 7 High school party sponsored by sophomore m
11 Band went to Martinsville.
14 First basketball game.
Edinburgh vs. M. H. S.
19 Clayton vs. M. H. S.
21 Martinsville vs. M. H. S.
25 Monroe vs. M. H. S.
28 Cathedral vs. M. H. S.

Dec. 4-6 Freshman tourney at Plainfield.
5 Brownsburg vs. M. H. S.
16 Christmas concert
17 Lawrence Central vs M. H. S.
19 Grade school operetta
Christmas vacation began!
31-4 Tourney at Plainfield

Jan. 5 End of Christmas vacation, ugh!
7 Decatur Central vs. M. H. S.
9 Spencer vs. M. H. S.
14 Denkey basketball game
Program by Carlton Music Dept.
17 Juniors sponsored a semi-formal dance.
21-22 Semester exams
23 University vs. M. H. S.

Feb. 10 Plainfield vs. M. H. S. Won the Mid-state Conference! Whoopee!
13 Lebanon vs. M. H. S.
17 Monroe vs. M. H. S. at Martinsville.
20 Avon vs. Mooresville
23 Saw movie on Annapolis Naval Academy
24 Glass blower, Mr. Malville, entertained the entire school.
25 A movie on National Music Camp was showed.
26-28 Sectional tourney at Bloomington

Mar. 5 Chapel program
12 Junior high school operetta
16 C. B. Darnon, Registrar of Purdue
25 Chapel program
26 Good Friday services at the Friends Church

Apr. 1 April Fool’s Day....Big Joke!!!
3 Band and chorus contest
7 Track meet at Martinsville
8 Chapel program
10 Symphony Orchestra of I. S. T. C. Some students attended P.T.A. at I. S. T. C.
15 First baseball game
Brownsburg vs. M. H. S.
16 Track meet at Charleston
Mixed class tourney track meet
Dance sponsored by freshmen
20 Lawrence Central vs. M. H. S.
21 Triangular track meet here
23 Senior class play—"Cracked Nuts"
27 Chapel program
30 Mr. Messick, Bell Scientist and Lecturer. Plainfield vs. M. H. S.
In the lower picture are Mr. Hillman and Mr. Dehoney, the two men who have the enormous task of cleaning up after the students, a few of whom are pictured above in the assembly. Fixing a leaky water fountain, repairing a broken blind, and replacing a smashed window pane are just a few of the many tasks performed by "Jim and Charlie".

School Calendar 1947 – 1948

Sept.
- 5 Everyone was present for it was organizing day.
- 8 First day of school. Ho, hum!
- 16 First football game. Charleston.
- 19 Danville vs M. H. S.
- 24-26 Freshmen Initiation. Some fun!
- 27 University vs. M.H.S.

Oct.
- 3 Election of class officers and sponsors. Jasonville vs. M.H.S.
- 10 Brownsburg vs. M.H.S.
- 12 Entertained by Mr. Croose, magician.
- 17 Plainfield vs. M. H. S.
- 21 Junior class play—"A Little Honey".
- 22 Greenwood vs. M.H.S.
- 24 Choral festival
- 31 Community Hallowe'en Party

Nov.
- 7 High school party sponsored by sophomore m
- 11 Band went to Martinsville.
- 14 First basketball game. Edinburgh vs. M.H.S.
- 19 Clayton vs. M.H.S.
- 21 Martinsville vs. M.H.S.
- 23 Monroe vs. M.H. S.
- 28 Cathedral vs. M.H.S.

Dec. 4-6
- Freshman tourney at Plainfield.
- 5 Brownsburg vs. M.H.S.
- 16 Christmas concert
- 17 Lawrence Central vs M.H.S.
- 19 Grade school operetta
Christmas vacation began!
- 31-4 Tourney at Plainfield

Jan.
- 5 End of Christmas vacation. ugh!
- 7 Decatur Central vs. M.H.S.
- 9 Spencer vs. M.H.S.
- 14 Denkey basketball game Program by Carlton Music Dept.
- 17 Juniors sponsored a semi-formal dance.
- 21-22 Semester exams
- 23 University vs. M.H.S.

Feb.
- 10 Plainfield vs. M.H.S. Won the Mid-state Conference! Whoopee!
- 10-13 State scholarship exams given.
- 12 Lincoln Day program.
- 13 Lebanon vs. M.H.S.
- 17 Monroe vs. M.H.S. at Martinsville.
- 20 Avon vs. Mooresville
- 23 Saw movie on Annapolis Naval Academy
- 24 Glass blower, Mr. Malville, entertained the entire school.
- 25 A movie on National Music Camp was showed.
- 26-28 Sectional tourney at Bloomington

Mar.
- 5 Chapel program
- 12 Junior high school operetta
- 16 C. E. Dammom, Registrar of Purdue
- 25 Chapel program
- 26 Good Friday services at the Friends Church

Apr.
- 1 April Fool's Day...Big Joke!!
- 3 Band and chorus contest
- 7 Track meet at Martinsville
- 8 Chapel program
- 10 Symphony Orchestra of I. S. T. C. Some students attended P.T.A. at I. S. T. C.
- 15 First baseball game. Brownsburg vs. M.H.S.
- 16 Track meet at Charleston
Mixed class tourney track meet Dance sponsored by freshmen
- 20 Lawrence Central vs. M.H.S.
- 21 Triangular track meet here
- 23 Senior class play—"Cracked Nuts"
- 27 Chapel program
- 30 Mr. Messick, Bell Scientist and Lecturer. Plainfield vs. M.H.S.
May 3 Army representative spoke to senior boys. Track meet at Speedyway
5 Danville vs M.H.S.
7 Mid-State Conference track meet
10 Greenwood vs. M.H.S.
14 Spring Music Festival
May 14 Sectional track meet
21 Junior and senior prom
23 Baccalaureate
24 Senior singing
14-20 Senior week
20-25 Final exams
26 Commencement
28 Last day of school!!

CLASS HISTORY

(Continued from page twenty)

by anticipation. Mr. Truax and Mrs. Eggleston were elected class sponsors; and George Carlisle, David Lively, Marcia Carpenter, Betty Simpson, Charles Dobbins, and Maxine Park were class officers.

Some of the pleasant tasks which we had obviously watched preceding graduating classes perform were now ours to accomplish, not the least of which were ordering invitations, having our pictures taken, preparing the annual, attending college day at Martinsville, sponsoring class parties and dances after the ball games, presenting the class play, and planning the bay side and dance for the senior class.

Our first real thrill came when we initiated the freshmen. At this time we received a sweet revenge for the indignities we suffered when we were freshmen. The initiation lasted for two days and was brought to a close by a party on the evening of the last day.

This year Mooresville introduced a new spot on the M.H.S. campus...football.

Seniors on the team were Poe, Carlisle, Peary, Perkinsfield, Wright, Shanks, Flucus, and Lively.

As we look back over our twelve years of school, we find many pleasant memories to carry us through the future years of our lives. Now we are ready to depart from our classrooms and, we, the class of ’48, hope we will always have a place in the hearts and minds of our teachers and school-mates.

SENIOR PLAY

(Continued from page sixty-three)

Immediately these zany characters become immersed in a series of calamitous and hilarious events. The youngsters, in order to escape the housekeeper’s eagle eye, put her to sleep by means of a hypnotic phonograph record. The record disappears and they can’t awaken her! Mrs. Garackle falls into such a deep trance she looks as if she were dead, and the kids have nightmares visions of the electric chair!

Uncle Bim accidently gets himself engaged to the designing Magnolia. Trying to extricate him from her clutches, Pete and Billy disguise themselves as Professor Beaum’s abandoned wife and child. Peggy and Ginger, trying to rout the fortune-hunting DeWasses, tell them there’s a streak of insanity in the family and by their own wing-dings convince them the Nutt family is really cracked! These delusions situations are further complicated by a giant octopus which escapes from a near-by aquarium and takes refuge in Miss Durlsia’s fish pool.

Prophecy

Not long ago as I was going through some trunks in my attick, I found an old lamp. It was covered with dust, so I picked up a dust cloth and vigorously began to free it of its contamination. Suddenly, as out of nowhere, a Genii appeared and informed me that he was my slave. Since my slightest wish was his command, I requested to know what had happened to the rest of the class of ’48. No sooner said than done. We were on a magic carpet flying high above the country-side.

The first person I saw was Charles Quillen who was “Simonizing” the black Buick convertible of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dobbins. Charles owns the Indianapolis Star and Betty is his secretary-wife.

Since my thirst was great and I needed some entertainment, I set the magic carpet down in New Orleans and went to the “Stringless String Bean Club”, owned jointly by Raymond Kayes and George Wright. As the lights dimmed, the chorus girls... Anna Mae Swinney, Edith Mae Cooper, Judith Wade, Ruthanne Moore, Alice Jeanne Monical, and Ruth Alice Brown... staggered out to back up Barbara Head’s “Fanning Bubble Dance”, which she does as a sideline from being a secretary. Max Jasaar, Joe McGuire, Max Poe, and Don Chonoweth do a fat boys’ tumbling and singing act here and on the radio station SLOP. The music is provided by Jackie Earles and her “Queer Quacks”, featuring Kate Gamble as soloist. Just before Jack Stevens, Bob Van Hoy, and Dorothy Martin, the bouncers politely put me out. Marilyn Miller, a model for John Stokestray, entered on both of his arms.

As I gathered myself together while flying low, I passed over the medical center where Dr. Wayne Richard Merriam was psychosysanlyzing a group of former classmates... Jerry McGuire, Bill Holmes, Philip Rigdon, and Margaret Shields. His three capable secretaries... Mable Marcum, Evelyn Frances, and Maxine Park... are kept very busy answering nutty phone calls.

On the other end of town is located Shirley Stanley’s Horsey Clinic, where I found her treating one of Bob Ferguson’s prize Puliminos. In the waiting room sat Mrs. George Carlisle, formerly Peggy Smith, with an ailing polege. George is enlarging his establishment for stiffs.

While passing over East Paducah, Kentucky, I stopped to attend a mass wedding. Those getting hitched were Joan Graham and an unknown outsider. Maurice Smith and Phyllis Copeland, Melba Swinney and a foreigner, Dorothy Moore... her husband hadn’t arrived as the ceremony began so Eugene Perkinsfield did it in proxy... and Martha Johnson is marrying a farmer from “Sliedoff.”

After the wedding was over, I sauntered down the street to Kathleen Johnson’s bakery where adjourn to a tavern. At the bakery I saw Flota Medlin, who is now Mrs. Sayer, and her six red-headed kids.

I notice in the paper that Marcia Carpenter is still attending Indiana University.

Bennie Flucus and Dave Lively are doing three shows a day at the Wigglesworth Theatre, Mooresville’s newest burlesque theater.

I noticed an election poster on every telephone pole in the community with Charles Flaugher’s picture on it. I see Charles is running for sheriff of Jeppe.

Jack Francis is running a farm in Madison Township. This farm is on the side of a hill and Jack claims it is good exercise running up and down the hill several times a day to retrieve his golf.

Howard Peary has founded a new business in Mooresville, just what it is we are not certain. There is a sign over the door that reads, “Come in and find out.”

According to an announcement in the Mooresville Daily Row... owned and operated by Francis Einfelt... Josephine Ollemman and Betty Farmer are to be married in the near future, to whom they are still wondering.

Eleanor Crowkiltie is contesting in her real estate office which is located in Gasburg.
May 3 Army representative spoke to senior boys. Track meet at Speedy 5 DA Denville vs MHS 7 Mid-State Conference track meet 10 Greenwood vs MHS 14 Spring Music Festival

May 14 Sectional track meet 21 Junior and senior prom 23 Buccaneer 24 Senior outing 12-20 Senior week 25-28 Final exams 30 Commencement 20 Last day of school!!

CLASS HISTORY

(Continued from page twenty)

er anticipation, Mr. Truax and Mrs. Eggleston were elected class sponsors; and George Carlisle, David Lively, Marica Carpenter, Betty Simpson, Charles Dobbs, and Maxine Park were class officers.

Some of the pleasant tasks which we had obviously watched preceding graduating classes perform were now ours to accomplish, not the least of which were ordering invitations, having our pictures taken, preparing the annual, attending college day at Martinsville, sponsoring class parties and dances after the ball games, presenting the class play, and planning the hay ride and dance for the senior class.

Our first real thrill came when we initiated the freshmen. At this time we received sweet revenge for the indignities we suffered when we were freshmen. The initiation lasted for two days and was brought to a close by a party on the evening of the last day.

This year Mooresville introduced a new spot on the M.H.S. campus—football.

Seniors on the team were Poe, Carlisle, Peary, Percifield, Wright, Shanks, Fiscus, and Lively.

As we look back over our twelve years of school, we find many pleasant memories to carry with us through the future years of our lives. Now we are ready to depart from our classmates and the class of ’48, we hope we will always have a place in the hearts and minds of our teachers and schoolmates.

SENIOR PLAY

(Continued from page sixty-three)

Immediately these sassy characters become immersed in a series of calamitous and hilarious events. The youngsters, in order to escape the housekeeper’s eagle eye, put her to sleep by means of a hypnotic photograph record. The record disappears and they can’t awaken her! Mrs. Garfield falls into such a deep trance she looks as if she were dead, and the kids have nightmarish visions of the electric chair!

Uncle Bim suddenly gets himself engaged to the designing Magnolia. Trying to extricate him from his clutches, Pete and Billy disguise themselves as Professor Beannish’s abandoned wife and child. Peggy and Ginger, trying to rout the fortune-hunting Delivers, tell them there’s a streak of insanity in the family and by their own wing-dings convince them the Nutt family is really cracked! These delirious situations are further complicated by a giant octopus which escapes from a near-by aquarium and takes refuge in Miss Duvalia’s fish pool.

Not long ago as I was going through some trunks in my attic, I found an old lamp. It was covered with dust, so I picked up a dust cloth and vigorously began to free it of its contamination. Suddenly, as out of nowhere, a Geni appeared and informed me that he was my slave. Since my slightest wish was his command, I requested to know what had happened to the rest of the class of ’48. No sooner said than done. We were on a magic carpet flying high above the country-side.

The first person I saw was Charles Quillen who was “Simonizing” the black Buick convertible of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dobbs. Charles owns the Indianapolis Star and Betty is his secretary-wife.

Since my thirst was great and I needed some entertainment, I set the magic carpet down in New Orleans and went to the “Stringless String Bean Club,” owned jointly by Raymond Kays and George Wright. As the lights dimmed, the chorus girls... Anna Mae Swinney, Edith Mae Cooper, Judith Waze, Ruthanna Moore, Alice Jeanne Monical, and Ruth Alice Brown... staggered out to back up Barbara Head’s “Fanning Bubble Dance”, which she does as a sideline from being a secretary. Max Jasus, Joe McGuire, Max Poe, and Don Chotniew do a fat boys’ tumbling and singing act here and on the radio station SLOP. The music is provided by Jackie Earles and her “Queer Quacks”, featuring Kate Gambrel as soloist. Just before Jack Stevens, Bob Van Hoy, and Dorothy Martin, the Bombards, politely put me out. Marilyn Miller, a model for John Stokeshore, entered on both of his arms.

As I gathered myself together while flying low, I passed over the medical center where Dr. Wayne Richard Merriman was psychoanalyzing a group of former classmates... Jerry McGuire, Bill Holmes, Phyllis Rigdon, and Margaret Shields, His three capable secretaries... Malda Marcum, Evelyn Frank, and Maxine Park... are kept very busy answering nasty phone calls.

On the other end of town is located Shirley Stanley’s Horse Clinic, where I found her treating one of Bob Ferguson’s prize puliminos. In the waiting room sat Mrs. George Carlisle, formerly Peggy Smith, with an ailing poodle. George is enlarging his establishment for stiffs.

While passing over East Paducah, Kentucky, I stopped to attend a mass wedding. Those getting hitched were Joan Graham and an unknown outsider, Maurice Smith and Phyllis Copeland, Melba Swinney and a foreigner, Dorothy Moore... her husband hadn’t arrived as the ceremony began so Eugene Percifield did it in proxy... and Martha Johnson is marrying a farmer from “Slidell”.

After the wedding was over, I caught a ride on a trolley to Kathleen Johnson’s bakery where a joke was in progress. At the bakery I saw Flita Medlin, who is now Mrs. Sayler, and her six red-headed kids.

I notice in the paper that Marica Carpenter is still attending Indiana University.

Bennie Ficus and Dave Lively are doing three shows a day at the “Wigglesworth Theatre”, Mooresville’s newest burlesque theater. I noticed an election poster on every telephone pole in the community with Charles Flaugher’s picture on it. It seems Charles is running for sheriff of Zippa.

Jack Francis is running a farm in Madison Township. This farm is on the side of a hill and Jack claims it is good exercise running up and down the hill several times a day to retrieve his pig.

Howard Peary has founded a new business in Mooresville, just what it is we are not certain. There is a sign over the door that reads, “Come in and find out.”

According to an announcement in the Mooresville Daily Row... owned and operated by Francis Finkel... Josephine Oleman and Betty Farmer are to be married in the near future, to whom they are still wondering.

Eleanor Cronkhite is contesting in her real estate office which is located in Gasrulg.
Mrs. Eggston and Mr. Truax haven’t been the same since the class of ’48 graduated. Mrs. Eggston is driving madly about town in her convertible, inviting whistles and catcalls at every corner. Mr. Truax is a total wreck. He had to quit teaching and take up farming. He is so weak he had to put the cows on the "honor system". That is, he gives each cow a pail and lets her give as much milk as she cares to.

Last Will & Testament

I, Ruth Alice Brown, will my interest in Dumb Wright to Bethel Goldman as I'm well contented with Truax and Oscar.

I, George Emerson Carlisle, will my unanny basket-eye to Moose Moore, also my ability to score more points and here's hoping you score more points.

I, Marcia Lee Carpenter, will my yell leading ability to Pat Lux, providing she leaves out the cartwheels.

I, Donald Chenoweth, will my book on "One Hundred Reasons Why I Should get an Excused Absence" to the Hiner boys.

I, Edith Mae Cooper, will my ability to get married before I graduate to Darlene McElroy.

I, Eleanor Cronkhite, will my last year's physics book to David Quillen. (I hope he gets more out of it than I did.)

I, Phyllis Copeland, will my ability to have a curly headed boy-friend with a Model "A" to Bonnie Twu. Better luck next time Bonnie.

I, Charles Dobkins, will my ability to sell candy at noon to Jack Degroot. I, Jackie Anna Earles, will my ability to rationalize about my intelligence to Janet Carlisle, also my modest lady-like way. I hope she benefits from it.

I, Frances Louis Einfeld, will nicknames of "Darling Jill" and "Kitty" to Mary Lou Varner, also my ability to answer advertisements in Illinois Street.

I, Betty Farmer, will my ice skates to Earl Bush in hopes that he'll have better luck with them than I did.

I, Robert Lee Ferguson, will my ability to tell tall stories in Sociology and make them sound real to Ronald Pritchard.

I, Bennie Allen Ficou, will my determination to get into every picture in the annual to Bob Jones.

I, Evelyn Francis, will a small part of my knowledge to John M. Cook. Every part will be needed.

I, Jack Francis, will my position in shop class to Moose Macvon.

I, Charles Flaugher, will my quiet sense of humor and lovable laugh to the High school faculty; Miss McCrary can tell them what to do with it.

I, Katherine Isabelle Gamble, will my lovely soprano voice to the horses, so they can use it in the future horse operas.

I, Joan Graham, will my ability to hold a position as editor of the school paper to Elizabeth Hadley as she could prove her romance as I have.

I, Barbara Lee Head, will my short curly locks to Ann Taylor so she can have that "new look".

I, William Holmes, will my ability to go steady with two girls at the same time to Curtis Wilcher.

I, D. uscilla Ann Hunt, will my ability to get a diamond to any junior who desires one.

I, Kermit Max Isaac, will my slim waistline to Lael Braisher.

I, Kathleen Johnson, will Rosie my man to watch in the future.

I, Martha Louise Johnson, will my book on "Thin Your Gams and Get your Man" to Sarolta Bralil, so she can be a successful Bulldog catcher.

I, Raymond Keys, will my ability to escort steady girls to classes and not gain anything by it to Calvin Reed.

I, David Levy, will my ability to argue for five cents in the Sociology Class to Ivan Neitzel.

I, Gerald Herbert McGuire, will my smooth line to Bill Cox with reference to the article in the school paper concerning his need for a woman.

I, Joseph Thomas McGuire Jr., will all my "hot air" to the balloon companies.

I, Mable Marcom, will my excessive use of cosmetics to Virginia Warthen.

I, Dorothy Lee Martin, will my fear of reptiles to Evelyn Denny, also a bottle of Nervine to act as a sedative to Mr. Bowman's nerves.

I, Wayne Merriman, will my big chance to get to park with Shirley Stanley in the afternoon, and not know how to take advantage of it to anyone who is as dumb as I am.

I, Marilyn Louise Miller, will my favorite bottle of slow bleach to Robert Deay in hopes he will take it home to Mabla.

I, Pete Florence Modlin, will my ability to go to school and be a modern housewife at the same time to my sister, Betty.

I, Alice Jeanne Monical, will all underclassmen a free look at the $1,000 I get for graduation. (Joke son!)

I, Dorothy Annabelle Moore, will my red hair to Marthaens Smith, also my interest in handsome boy-friends.

I, Ruthanna Moore, will my pleasant disposition and grown-up manner to Helen Goff.

I, Josephine Olleman, will some of my interest in men to anyone who desires the same interests as mine.

I, Maxine Park, will my studious way and my love for Mr. Potter's curly red hair to Dot Farmer.

I, Howard Peary, will my nickname of "Cutie Pie" given to me by Miss Ragland to Jimmie Ringer.

I, Eugene Pearsfield, will my corny line and my much used quip of "home brew" to Mackie Pygman.

I, Max Poe, will my ability as a football player to Charles Hage. Go to it Chick!

I, Charles Quillen, will my collection of traffic tickets to MG Potter and son. With his new car he probably won't need my collection.

I, Shirley Stanley, will my latest book on "Parkin' and Sparklin' in the Dear Old Sunlight" to Dorothy Hartwich.

I, Phyllis Rigdon, will my flower hair ornaments to any underclassman whose boy-friend prefers them.

I, Margaret Shields, will my ability to get a Brooklyn man to Evelyn Denny.

I, Donald Sarle, will my nickname, "Suck" to Mike Forrester as I'm sure he deserves it.

I, Betty Simpson, will my ability to be out of class five days a week, seven periods a day to Herbie Adler.

I, Maurice Smith, will my ability to go to Illinois and get an excited absence to Buddie Blashcke. (My speed was within reason.)

I, Peggy Smith, will my ability to tell all tales or enlarge upon any subject and get away with it to any underclassman who finds it useful.

I, Jack Stevens, will my position as chief cook and bottle washer to Bill Shipley.

I, John Stokesberry, will my fondness for fruits, especially dates, to Hugh Allen; providing he doesn't indulge too excessively.

I, Anna Mae Swinney, will my G.A.A. sweater to any freshman boy who can't get one any other way.

I, Melba Swinney, will by nickname, "Marble", to Jeanette Hornaday.

I, Judith Wise, will my loud and boisterous manner to Lael Braisher. She'll know what to do with it.

I, George Wright, will my love letters from Ruthie to Truax.

I, Bob Van Hoy, will part of my interest in Martinville to anyone who needs a girl. (That's plenty of women in them thar hills.)
Mrs. Egleston and Mr. Truxx haven't been the same since the class of '48 graduated. Mrs. Egleston is driving madly about in her convertible, inviting whistles and catcalls at every corner. Mr. Truxx is a total wreck. He had to quit teaching and take up farming. He is so weak he had to put the cows on the "honor system". That is, he gives each cow a pail and lets her give as much milk as she cares to.

Last Will & Testament

I, Ruth Alice Brown, will my interest in Dumb Wright to Bethel Goldman as I'm well contented with Truxx and Oscar.

I, George Emerson Carlisle, will my unanny basket-eye to Moose Moore, also my ability to score more points and here's hoping you score more points.

I, Marcia Lee Carpenter, will my yell leading ability to Pat Lux, providing she leaves out the cartwheels.

I, Donald Chenoweth, will my book on "One Hundred Reasons Why I Should get an Excused Absence" to the Hiner boys.

I, Edith Mae Cooper, will my ability to get married before I graduate to Darlene McRory.

I, Eleanor Cronkhite, will my last year's physics book to David Quillen, (I hope he gets more out of it than I did.)

I, Phyllis Copeland, will my ability to have a curly headed boy-friend with a Model "A" to Bonnie Tru. Better luck next time Bonnie.

I, Charles Dobbins, will my ability to sell candy at noon to Jacob Degroot.

I, Jackie Anna Earles, will my ability to rationalize about my intelligence to Janet Carlisle, also my modest lady-like way. I hope the benefits from it.

I, Frances Louise Eifeldt, will nicknames of "Darling Jill" and "Kitty" to Mary Lou Varner, also my ability to answer advertisements on Illinois Street.

I, Betty Farris, will my ice skates to Earl Bush in hopes that he'll have better luck with them than I did.

I, Robert Lee Ferguson, will my ability to tell tall stories in Sociology and make them sound real to Ronald Pritchard.

I, Bennie Allen Finch, will my determination to get into every picture in the annual to Bob Jones.

I, Evelyn Francis, will a small part of my knowledge to John M. Cook. Every part will be needed.

I, Jack Francis, will my position in shop class to Minnie Macdon.

I, Charles Flaugher, will my quiet sense of humor and lovable laugh to the High school faculty; Miss McCready can tell them what to do with it.

I, Katherine Isabelle Gamble, will my lovely soprano voice to the horses, so they can use it in the future horse opera.

I, Joan Graham, will my ability to hold a position as editor of the school paper to Elisabeth Hadley so that she could proofread her romance as I have.

I, Barbara Lee Head, will my short curly locks to Ann Taylor so she can have that "new look".

I, William Holmes, will my ability to go steady with two girls at the same time to Curtie Witcher.

I, Duscilla Ann Hunt, will my ability to get a diamond to any junior who desires one.

I, Kermit Max Isaac, will my slim waistline to Lael Harshman.

I, Kathleen Johnson, will Rose my man to watch in the future.

I, Martha Louise Johnson, will my book on "Phin Your Gams and Get your Msn" to Saraolu Boali, so she can be a successful Bulldog catcher.

I, Raymond Keys, will my ability to escort steady girls to classes and not gain anything by it to Calvin Rode.

I, David Lively, will my ability to argue for five cents in the Sociology Class to Ivan Neztal.

I, Gerald Herbert McGuire, will my smooth line to Bill Cox with reference to the article in the school paper concerning his need for a woman.

I, Joseph Thomas McGuire Jr., will all my "hot air" to the balcony companies.

I, Mable Marcum, will my excessive use of cosmetics to Virginia Wartenne.

I, Dorothy Lee Martin, will my fear of reptiles to Evelyn Denny, also a bottle of Nervine to act as a sedative to Mr. Bowman's nerves.

I, Wayne Mccriman, will my big chance to get to park with Shirley Stanley in the afternoon, and not know how to take advantage of it to anyone who is as dumb as I am.

I, Marilyn Louise Miller, will my favorite bottle of slow bleach to Robert Dayr in hopes he will take it home to Mable.

I, Flora Florence Modlin, will my ability to go to school and be a modern housewife at the same time to my sister, Betty.

I, Alice Jeanne Monical, will all underclassmen a free look at the $1,000 I get for graduation. (Joke son?)

I, Dorothy Annabelle Moore, will my red hair to Martha Smith, also my interest in handsome boy-friends.

I, Ruthanna Moore, will my pleasant disposition and grown-up manner to Helen Goff.

I, Josephine Olemann, will some of my interest in men to anyone who desires the same interests as mine.

I, Maxine Park, will my studious way and my love for Mr. Potter's curly red hair to Dot Farmer.

I, Howard Pearcy, will my nickname of "Cutie Pie" given to me by Miss Magdalena to Jimmie Ringer.

I, Eugene Perchild, will my corn line and my much used quart of home brew to Mackie Pyman.

I, Max Poe, will my ability as a football player to Charles Hagge. Go to it Chick!

I, Charles Quillen, will my collection of traffic tickets to Mz Potter and son. With his new car he probably won't need his collection.

I, Shirley Stanley, will my latest book on "Parkin' and Sparkin' in the Dear Old Sunlight" to Dorothy Hartl.

I, Phyllis Rigdon, will my flower hair ornaments to any underclassman whose boyfriend prefers them.

I, Margaret Shields, will my ability to get a Brooklyn man to Evelyn Denny.

I, Donald Sarke, will my nickname, "Suck" to Mike Forrestor as I'm sure he deserves it.

I, Betty Simpson, will my ability to be out of class five days a week, seven periods a day to Herbie Adler.

I, Maurice Smith, will my ability to go to Illinois and get an excused absence to Budde Blachke. (My speed was within reason.)

I, Peggy Smith, will my ability to tell tall tales or enlarge upon any subject and get my with it to any underclassman who finds it useful.

I, Jack Stevens, will my position as chief cook and bottle washer to Bill Shiple.

I, John Stokesberry, will my fondness for fruits, especially dates, to Hugh Allen; providing he doesn't indulge too excessively.

I, Anna Mae Swinney, will my G.A.A. sweater to any freshman boy who can get one any other way.

I, Melba Swinney, will be nickname, "Marble", to Jeanette Hornaday.

I, Judith Wise, will my loud and boisterous manner to Lael Harshman. She'll know what to do with it.

I, George Wright, will my love letters from Ruthie to Truxx.

I, Rob Van Hoy, will part of my interest in Martinsville to anyone who needs a girl. (That's plenty of women in them hill.)