Serious Times as Well as Excitement Fill the Halls at MHS

This year was a pacesetter indeed. The new addition gave students and faculty more room and space to accomplish their goals for this year and set higher ones for the future.

This year Mooresville students enjoyed taping programs for WJMK Plainfield.

First ball game anxiety heightens as the Pioneers ready themselves for the Brownsburg Bulldogs.

Bruce Beasley sees that Jay Curry can't wait to get on the ice after school for his daily hockey game.

Carpenters Work as Students Study

Although the new addition wasn't finished in September, the students of Mooresville High School began their year of study, fun, and hard work as they strived towards many goals.

This pacesetter year also brought new equipment for teachers as well as new techniques for furthering the education of MHS'ers.

Busy workmen were a familiar sight in the new wing for quite a while.

Busy senior Butch Taylor catches a nap before a tennis match.

Students had the opportunity to view the movie "America and Americans" as a special bonus.

A familiar sight at noon was couples standing in the halls.

Homecoming Festivities Added Excitement to the Pacesetter Year

Homecoming 1967 began early in October when each class began work on its float and elected their candidates for the royal court.

Although spirits were dampened when the football team was defeated by Honey Creek, things began to look up as the Sophomore Class placed first with their float "Pioneers are The Type for a Victory" and Senior Rosie Hayes was crowned Homecoming Queen with Bev McCammack elected Princess.

The Joys Of Life played for the Homecoming dance "Foot-Ball."

New Productions Featured at M.H.S.

Many hard hours of work went into the two productions the Dramatics Club presented this year. With the discontinuation of class plays, they were the only club to present plays.

Diary of Anne Frank, the first play, was presented in the fall at the Newby gym. In the spring Pure As The Driven Snow delighted "mellowdramer" fans in the high school gym.

Charlene Sego portrays Mrs. Van Dan in Diary Of Anne Frank.

A scene from Pure as The Driven Snow

Chris Heaton watches as Bradley Damon recites his lines in Diary of Anne Frank.

Larry York shows his anguish to his fellow actors in Pure as the Driven Snow.

Marcia Young emotes in Pure As the Driven Snow. She won an Oscar.

Musical Productions

"Ma" Shepherd and "Pa" O'Dell try to break the spirit of Charlene Knapp, Sunbonnet Sue.

The whole country village sings to the city slickers, Sandi Crowe, Steve Tipmore, Jan Helton, and Dave Workman.

Add to Pace of Year

The Sunbonnet Girl was the Choir's presentation of the year. They also gave several concerts and sang for some of the civic clubs in Mooresville.

Musical Varieties of 1968 was the band's annual presentation to the public. The Marching Pioneers also traveled to a band day and a parade to make their year a complete one.

Both organizations in the MHS music department helped to keep us on the move.

Drum soloist Larry Farmer practices for his big moment.

Smart boy watchers watch girls like Debbie Barry, Rosie Hayes, and Susan Goddard.

Senior Royalty Reigns Over Prom

The 1968 Junior-Senior Prom, "Around the World in Eighty Days" was presented in the Knights of Columbus Hall. Over 200 people enjoyed the decorations, entertainment, and refreshments provided by the Junior Class.

After the prom everyone went to the high school gymnasium where the parents of the Junior Class members had prepared the post-prom "Discotheque 68."

Music was furnished by the Jimmy Nash band at the prom and by the Vlasic's at the post-prom.

Queen Connie Harris doesn't know whether to grin or sniff as Mr. Curry crowns her.

Laughter seizes candidates Bev McCammack, L. Goldsberry, Cindy Hodges, J. Goldsberry, Rena Engleman, and Danny Key.

Awards and recognition were given to deserving students whose efforts and hard work had finally come to an end for the 1967-68 year.

Various clubs, organizations, and departments in the school presented pins, certificates and trophies to those students whose meritorious achievement was the highest in a particular area.

Barbara Nungester and Ellen Keller were presented the Valedictorian and Salutatorian awards. Several seniors wiped their eyes as outgoing president, Mike Ferguson, handed the gavel to incoming president of the Student Body, Cyndy Hodges.

Awards Were Given

Dana Greene receives the outstanding band award from Mr. Millspaugh, above; and below he accepts the most outstanding senior athlete award from Mr. Hill.

Mrs. Mary Jane Cheesman presented citizenship awards to a student from each class.

on Honor Day

Rosie Hayes and Ramie Hayes were presented awards from Mr. Glen Hinshaw.

Barbara Nungester and Ellen Keller received the Valedictorian and Salutatorian awards from Mr. East.

Ed Moore—One of many.

Danny Davison—Agriculture

Pam Wampler—Citizenship

Salutatorian Ellen Keller presents her speech on individuality.

Barbara Nungester, Valedictorian, and Marty Sandefer, Senior Class President, presented speeches on originality and personality.

Commencement Brings Seniors to Final Step

The final ceremony for the graduates of 1968 was Commencement. May 19 was the day parents, friends, and relatives saw each senior receive his diploma. Tears of joy and sadness, laughter and congratulations were all present as each person felt his own particular success being awarded.

Barbara Nungester, Valedictorian, Ellen Keller, Salutatorian, and Marty Sandefer, Class President, presented the Commencement addresses. A few hours before, Reverend Don Ridgeway gave the Baccalaureate service. This was the first time many persons could remember both ceremonies being given the same day, and the commencement addresses given by three students only. It was a fitting climax to a group of students who have set a tremendous pace for others to follow.

ACADEMICS

In New Science Labs, Students Proved Laws

Ted Tapp is seen focusing on a Biology specimen.

THE SCIENCE DEPARTMENT took on a New look this year as they added three new teachers, a new chemistry room, and much needed equipment. Earth Science, Biology, Chemistry, and Physics each have been able to expand their subject area for the benefit of the student.

Science Club this year toured an atomic energy plant and museum in Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

Mr. Hamm, Mr. Milburn, Mr. Sears, Mr. Alexander, and Mr. Pearson have the many subject areas of science ranging from insects to atoms.

Bob Ransom and Louise Saltsgiver are doing a distilling experiment in the new chemistry lab.

Bruce Beasley and Butch Taylor are setting up a Van de Graaf generator in Physics class.

Barbara Swinney, Brenda Utterback, and Brenda Swinney watch as Mr. Alexander explains the brain.

Math Department Sets a New Pace

Rhonda Rushing practices her skills in Algebra at the board.

These Geometry students take advantage of their study time.

The MATH DEPARTMENT, from General Math to College Algebra, has taken on a new look this year. They are now holding classes in the new section of the building. But this has not changed their old goals of solving everyday problems, developing the ability for logical reasoning and creative thinking, and understanding the why's of problems. Frustration and success are the feelings of Mr. Johnson, Mrs. Masten, Mr. Wampner, and Mr. Lind as they guide their classes through the perils of the world of numbers.

in Their New Rooms

Sherry Ringer and Jackie Helton seem to have other things on their minds besides Algebra.

History and Social Sciences

Family Living students, Bonnie Smith, Steve Porter, and Ron Richer, learn the art of proposing marriage.

Film strips brought a change of pace to HISTORY classes this year. Studying our past and present world events, students learn from Mrs. Landwerlen, Mr. J. Stewart, Mr. Marksbery, Mr. Thurston, Miss Phares, and Mr. Williams, the facts of our country's foundation and those of other nations. For students who show sincere interest in their social studies class, there has been a club formed for them to bring their subject to life. Miss Phares and Mr. Marksbery head the club.

Steve Porter leads a debate in Government class.

Topographic maps seem to be quite a problem for these World Geography students.

Rami Hayes, Joy Starling, and Marcia Young enjoy a Sociology discussion.

Marsha Marksberry becomes a victim of a psychology experiment.

Broadened and Enriched Our Outlook

Family living and International Relations were two new courses added to the curriculum of the SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT this year. These subjects, along with Sociology and Psychology, help M.H.S. students to better understand human beings and their behavior, now and in the future.

A U.S. History test in the form of a crossword puzzle poses quite a problem for David Truax

New Concepts in the Study of Languages

Seniors Pat Darnell, Pam Wampler, Jim Barnett, and Mark Marksbary, begin work on their research papers.

After much time and energy, these same students put the finishing touches on their papers.

Alice Stephens ponders over an exercise.

From the freshman year, students at Mooresville High study the basics of our ENGLISH language. Book reports, themes, and grammatical practices, were the tasks for students to accomplish.

For the first time, the M.H.S. English Department published its own magazine.

"American Dream" was presented by Mrs. Silet's English class. The composition classes traveled to the Indianapolis Public Library to do research for their senior theses, the final requirement for graduation.

Students in Mrs. Silet's literature class practice group discussions.

Improved the Quality of Students' Work

Senior Jim Robinson dreams of "an evening in Paris."

Mrs. MacNabb observes, as Warren Loomis lectures in Latin class.

The Language Department at M.H.S. was busy this year organizing its clubs and activities. The LATIN CLUB installed new members, had their annual slave sale and some of its members attended the JCL Convention at Ball State on May 24. The highlight of their year was their Roman Banquet on May 4.

The FRENCH CLASSES studied the habits and language of the French people. They held their annual Mardi Gras on February 16.

Films gave a change of pace to the SPANISH students. They studied the culture of Spain as well as the language. At their Christmas party, Mrs. Korany spoke of Panama and Puerto Rico. The Spanish banquet was the main event of the year.

In Spanish class, Larry York and Pam Wilcher show the others their Mexican souvenirs.

Exploratory Teaching and Speech Set

Sara Smitherman gives instructions during a test.

SPEECH became one of the most expanded areas at M.H.S. this year. A video tape recorder, advanced speech class, and a radio program created an avid enthusiasm throughout the student body for this subject.

EXPLORATORY TEACHING is another growing area. Open only to seniors who are in Future Teachers of America this class is made up of fourteen students. Each exploratory teacher spends seventy minutes a day, four days a week, planning and preparing lessons for students at Northwood Elementary School. They are not only teachers, but friends and companions for their tiny students.

Rami Hayes has the experience of supervising playground activities.

a New Pace for Many Upperclassmen

Mike Ferguson is giving a speech on "How to Diaper a Baby."

Jan Potts is helping a student finger paint.

Debbie Ringer, Mike Ferguson, and Bernie Wetzel run the video tape machine in Advanced Speech class.

Speakers Enriched Home Ec. Classes

Basic elements of serving, cooking, and home management, are a few of the areas students in the HOME ECONOMICS field. Film strips, guest speakers, and a field trip to the 1968 Home Show created enthusiasm in the course this year.

Projects included home nursing, inviting guests to visit the department, cooking meals to serve guests, and making Christmas cards and Mother's Day gifts.

Mrs. Phelps and Mrs. Leonard help guide their students to prepare for future responsibilities in the home.

Our ART DEPARTMENT has gone imaginative this year as the students work with such materials as inks, crayons, collage, toothpicks, and paper mache. This year they are playing a very active part in making the decorations for the Choir Operetta and the Variety Show. Participating in local and district art contests is a major event in this department, with several students receiving awards.

Home Economics girls are hard at work in sewing class.

While Art Students Enjoyed New Facilities

Home Economist, Mrs. Landry, explains texture to these Home Economics girls.

These girls are practicing for the future.

Steve Money and Randy Foster draw portraits in Art class.

Miss Haskett observes as her Art students work on their projects.

"March 2-3-4, step about, step about." These were familiar sounds as the Marching Pioneers organized for their 1967-68 season.

Indiana University Band Day, along with the Martinsville Fall Foliage Parade and home football games, were the main events of marching season.

Highlighting the year was the annual "Musical Varieties" presented April 5 and 6. Selections included 'Music To Watch Girls By,' "Tara's Theme" from Gone With the Wind, and the "Stripper."

Pop Music and Classics Mixed and Echoed

The Band is constantly practicing for various programs.

The M.H.S. VOCAL DEPARTMENT has been especially busy this year. Under the direction of Mrs. Beasley, the Concert Choir has achieved honor by participating in district and State vocal contests.

The outstanding feature of the year was the presentation of the operetta, The Sunbonnet Girl. The Christmas Concert was a fitting close to the activities of the first semester. Their last appearance for the year was for the seniors at baccalaureate.

Special concerts by the Concert Choir and selected groups from the Choir were well received by many service organizations throughout the community.

Mrs. Beasley directs the choir at one of its performances.

Down the Halls of Mooresville High

"Practice makes perfect" is the thought on the minds of these choir students, as they practice for their next performance.

New Labs Set Business Pace

The sound of typewriter keys pumping up and down is part of the continued learning process in our BUSINESS DEPARTMENT. A new shorthand lab, business club, and another typing room give our students practice with all the newest equipment. A field trip to Central Business College was a highlight of the year. These are only a small part of the tasks in preparing the Business students for the business world.

Shorthand student Susie Clayton, explain some of the shorthand symbols.

Donna Levin has a question for her Typing II teacher.

New Equipment Keeps Ag. Lads Busy

Powers, Davis, Andrews, and Moore overhaul planter for spring planting.

More Student Creativity

NEW is the word to describe the INDUSTRIAL ARTS DEPARTMENT. They received new equipment, new methods, and new programs. Graphic Arts, Farm shop, and Electricity are the new courses offered in the shop area.

A field trip to Allison's Power-Rama, and films gave a change of pace to the regular schedule.

Mr. Ratliff, Mr. Qualitza, Mr. Brown, Mr. Riley and Mr. Stewart teach their classes the important skills and the newest techniques necessary for their future careers.

Larry Ebert uses the skills he has learned in Mechanical Drawing class to finish his assignment.

Tony Van Hook and David Allen look over an electrical circuit in Electricity class.

Was Brought About by Expanded Shops

Harold Warner works on a project in Metals class.

Dennis Norton experiments with a new radial arm saw in Wood Shop.

Jerry Van Hook works with a wire-making machine.

New Sports Quickened the Pace in P.E.,

Physical Education aides, Don Mathis and Harold Robinson, watch the techniques of tumbling.

These girls take the game of soccer very seriously.

These Physical Education students are taking one of their skills tests.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION classes this year are enjoying such activities as basketball tourneys, soccer games, tennis, golf, and games with the new cage ball. These are only a few of the activities Mrs. Morris and Mr. Baker are using to keep their freshmen and sophomores on the move to improve their skills, coordination, and attitudes. Tumbling has been expanded this year to further activities in the department.

While Drivers Ventured to New Places

"Slow down!" is a familiar phrase heard in DRIVER EDUCATION this year as the brave teachers, Mr. Ramey and Mr. Baker, take their students over the roads between Mooresville, Monrovia, Plainfield, and Waverly. The longer classes this year have given the students a better chance to learn the parts of the car, ways of caring for it, and the skills necessary to become good drivers.

Driver Education students learn how to parallel park.

Mr. Ramey points out that one should watch where he's going at all times.

The Pioneers took to the gridiron to avenge a disappointing 3-7 season from a year ago. This year they had a season mark of 5-5, winning every other game.

Three seniors, Dana Greene, Harold Robinson, Stan O'Dell, and a junior, Danny Key, were named to the Mid-State Conference Team. This was the second such honor for Danny.

With the promise of an increased number of boys turning out next fall, and our returning lettermen, the football team has a fine future ahead.

Pioneers Ruffled — Foil "Raters"

The '67-68 roundballers were figured to have a rebuilding season. But with a 15-7 record this was not a rebuilding team by any means.

Coach Ramey gave some good advice to a fellow coach: "Schedule all your games at home." This year's Pioneers are living proof of this, for they won all eleven of their home contests. The team played hard even in those they lost. A fine example is the Edgewood game. After being down 20 points in the second half, they battled back to a tie, the lead, and a loss by only three points.

New Records Set in '68 Wrestling

Wrestling came to life this year at M. H. S. The enthusiasm of the student body and interest on the part of the community gave the wrestling meets the biggest crowds they have ever had.

The season began with an inter-squad meet to which the community was invited and a wrestling convocation in front of the student body.

There Mooresville out-wrestled Plainfield 41 to 15.

During these events the people were able to see wrestling as it really is. They saw the conditioning, ability, speed, strength, and agility required for a boy to excel in this sport.

The Pioneer baseball team faced another disappointing season this year. Although finishing 1-16, many of the games were very close and could have gone either way.

Only one senior is graduating from the team so next year's squad has a great opportunity for a fine season. Nine returning lettermen, comprised mostly of next year's seniors, will be the backbone of next season's attack on the diamond.

This year was one of experience. Come the fall the baseball team will show their opponents how to play the game.

As Cindermen Take to the Track

Soph. Stewart O'Dell shows the form that won him many firsts in the shot-put.

The Varsity Track Squad finished with 5-11 season this year, and set two new records along the way. Senior Dana Greene broke his own low hurdles record with a 21 second performance. The 880 yard relay team, comprised of Dana Greene, Dennis Norton, Larry Goldsberry, and Stewart O'Dell, set a new record for that event with a time of 1:35.1.

Highlights and events of the '68 season included: a sixth-place finish in the Mid-State meet, a fifth in the Sectionals, and outstanding personal performances by many team members.

Senior Don Tipmore finishes a close second in the 220.

Dennis Norton takes the baton from Dana and starts his leg of the 880 yard relay.

Senior Bruce Beasley has led the team at first position for three years.

Rami Hayes demonstrates the most important phase of tennis, the serve.

Scott Sears steps back and smacks a forehand at his opponent.

Tennis Team Finishes 11-6 — Best Ever!!

The Varsity Tennis Team Finished with their best record ever and placed high in two invitational tournaments. After two poor seasons, the team combined experience with new talent to post an 11 win, 6 loss season.

Two boys had good seasons to help pace the team in their matches. Phil Harris, the team's MVP, boasted a 11-4 record while Rami Hayes had a 14-2 mark.

Highlights of the '68 year included a 3rd in the Speedway Tournament and a 2nd in the Danville Tournament.

MVP Phil Harris played strongly at no. 2 position all year.

Golf Team Enters Its Third Year

Front: L-R, G. Sellars, J. Curry, B. McGuire. 2nd: J. Lipscomb, B. Powell, J. Newcomer.

The Varsity Golf Team entered its third year of competition with a new group of boys and a new style of play. In the two years previous responsibility rested with one team member, but this year five boys shared the load equally.

Although this was not a particularly successful season, the team began to jell; and with all but one boy returning, next year promises to be a different story.

N.H.A. Set Pace-Setting Year.

The NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY furthers scholarship, leadership, service, and character. This year, members sponsored a pep rally for the public and a "shirt day" for the students. N.H.A. climaxed the busy year with a picnic at Plainfield's town park.

"But as you know, my name is Weber."

As president of the Honor Society, Larry Farmer led the induction ceremony.

The Mooresville High School STUDENT COUNCIL is a very important link between the faculty, the administration, and the student body. Under the leadership of Mr. Patchett, it began to function the first day of school by assisting freshmen to their classes and acquainting everyone with the new addition. It sponsored the Homecoming activities; the parade, the queen contest, and the dance, "Foot-Ball." Its members organized and took part in the Christmas convocation. Before a special occasion or holiday, the Student Council sponsored a Dress-Up Day. Always interested in the promotion of school spirit, the Student Council conducted a sectional hall decoration contest, presented the team with gold ties, and held a Blue and Gold Day. They also recognized senior basketball and football players, cheerleaders, and their parents. Academically, the Council awarded scholastic letter sweaters to those having held a 3.75 grade average for five semesters.

L-R: J. Goldsberry, M. Kellum, C. Hodges, M. Young, and M. Ferguson anxiously await their turn to speak before the student body.

In the state and national program-of-work, the FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA carried out several projects. At Christmas they sent gifts to local servicemen in Viet Nam and to the elderly at the Morgan County Home. Some members attended the two district conventions. Its two money-making projects included the annual chili supper, "Chili and Quackers," and its Hawaiian-oriented, "Lai-z-Luau." The field trip to Stokely Van Camp and Citizens Gas and Coke provided an appropriate end to a good year.

Travel to France, Italy, and Spain

Highlights of the French Club calendar included a Mardi Gras and a dinner at Chez Jeans where some members had their first taste of snails. In traditional Roman style, the Junior Classical League held a Banquet and a slave sale. Some members also attended the Indiana Convention held at Ball State University. The Spanish Club had various meetings around a Spanish theme. Their annual fiesta was a tremendous success with folk singing and a guest speaker, Mrs. Oscar Kourany.

This year's WAGON TRAILS staff was kept busy. We started the year with a lecture by our Publisher's representative. Several of the members were unable to keep up the pace, and voluntarily withdrew. Outstanding members were: Ellen Keller, Linda Heshelman, Debbie Ringer, and Rami Hayes.

The CAMPUS CRIER went back to the old format and method of publishing. Mrs. Parker again handled the reins. The advanced typing classes typed, and the Journalism class wrote several stories and articles. Outstanding journalists were Bob Ransom and Debbie Barry.

Science Interest Soars

The SCIENCE CLUB developed interest in science at Mooresville. Several club meetings were devoted to experimentation by students. In the spring, the club toured the American Museum of Atomic Energy and the Oak Ridge National Laboratory at Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

How do you create an evening of magic and excitement? This was the task of the Prom Steering Committee. After choosing the Greenwood Knights of Columbus as their site, they began to build the 1968 Prom upon the theme, "Around the World in 80 Days," and they did create an evening of excitement and magic.

STAFF

Our Administration Moves Ahead of the Pace.

Our administration had already set the pace for the 1967-68 school year with plans for the new addition, new equipment in every department, new school hours, and new seventy-minute periods. Evidence is everywhere to prove that these men are not merely "talkers," but that they are "doers." The community can bet that, while they were busy with this school year, they were formulating future plans to make Mooresville High School the best possible school.

Supt. W. R. Curry's business day is endless.

When We Lagged, Our Faculty Urged Us

From 8:05 until 2:50, most of the faculty learned what the seventy-minute period meant. They kept us awake, and they kept us alert to things past, things present, and things future. We are fortunate this year to have had one of the most proficient group of teachers in Mooresville's history.

The teachers seemed to give more individual attention because of the seventy-minute periods than they had ever been able to give. We responded. The Honor Rolls grew. More awards were won by the Seniors. In spite of our cynical remarks, at times, we liked our faculty and respect them for making us keep up with the pace.

Mr. Alexander kept the pace going in health class. We had always heard about it, but this was the first time most of us had seen it.
