We look at MHS 1972...

As we look at MHS, it is easy to see what made the 1971-72 year a unique and exciting one for the students and faculty. Each individual year at MHS differs from the last in some way, and the 1971-72 year was no exception.

A major difference, which was a step toward a more liberal school, was the adoption of the new dress code. The dress code, which was developed by the MHS student Council, allowed girls to wear pant suits and slack sets, and the boys were given the privilege to wear their hair and sideburns longer than last year.

Below: In the classrooms, the girls find it more comfortable to wear slacks than dresses.

Right: Gail Griffen and Lou Ann Thompson display the use of the dress code by wearing slacks to a sporting event.

Top right: Even though the new dress code allowed girls to wear slacks, many still wore dresses. On the left is Cindy Bryant, and on the right is Carla Warthen.

Left: Tony Woods and Don Sizemore are two examples of the guys who wear their hair long.

We see new developments...

In addition to the more liberal dress code, Mooresville High developed in other ways. The Student Council sponsored live-a-little day, which was first introduced last year. Two days were allowed for the event this year, during which many different areas of study were offered.

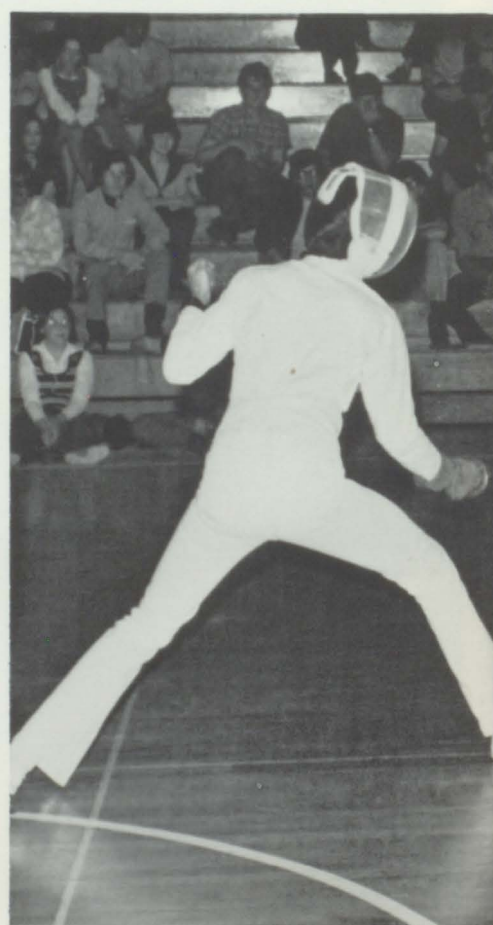

The choir and Dramatics Club presented their version of the Broadway musical, "Hello Dolly." This was the first Broadway musical to be presented by the students of MHS.

Right: One of the more popular courses of live-a-little day was fencing. The class consisted of a discussion on fencing, followed by a demonstration.

Left: During a special convocation for live-a-little day, the student body gathered on the bleachers at the football field to watch three men parachute from a plane and land on our field.

Below: Another scene from "Hello Dolly" shows Erin Pritchard as Dolly having a conversation with Richard Moore as Horace Vandegelter.

We see small changes . . .

Introduced in the 1971-72 year was the Wagon Trails Revue, sponsored by the Wagon Trails staff. The revue was a money making project presented to the public for their enjoyment.

There were also many small changes during the year of 1971-72, which helped to make this year a unique one for MHS students. Lines were painted in the parking lot in hopes that they would create more car space, the freshman class was the largest ever to enter the halls of MHS, and we acquired new teachers, and along with the teachers, new ideas. Although we acquired new teachers, the turnover of faculty was less than the past years.

We see 1972 as a unique year.

These are just a few of the changes that took place during the year. Although many changes took place, many traditions stayed the same. For a look at the new and the old, come with us now As We Look At MHS.

Top: Mr. Keller is often seen, as he has been in the past, talking with some of the senior boys in the lunch room.

Above: Sports have always been an important part of MHS, and 1972 was no exception.

Right: As in years past, many couples can be seen in the halls of MHS. The students seen talking are Tonja Burnside and Mickey Berney.

Left: Another of the traditions at MHS is the variety show. "Growing Up" was the theme of the 1972 variety show, and acting as Ragady Ann and Ragady Andy were Holly Beasley and David Freeman.

Above: During sectionals, which is always an exciting time for MHS students, the cheerleaders back the team faithfully.

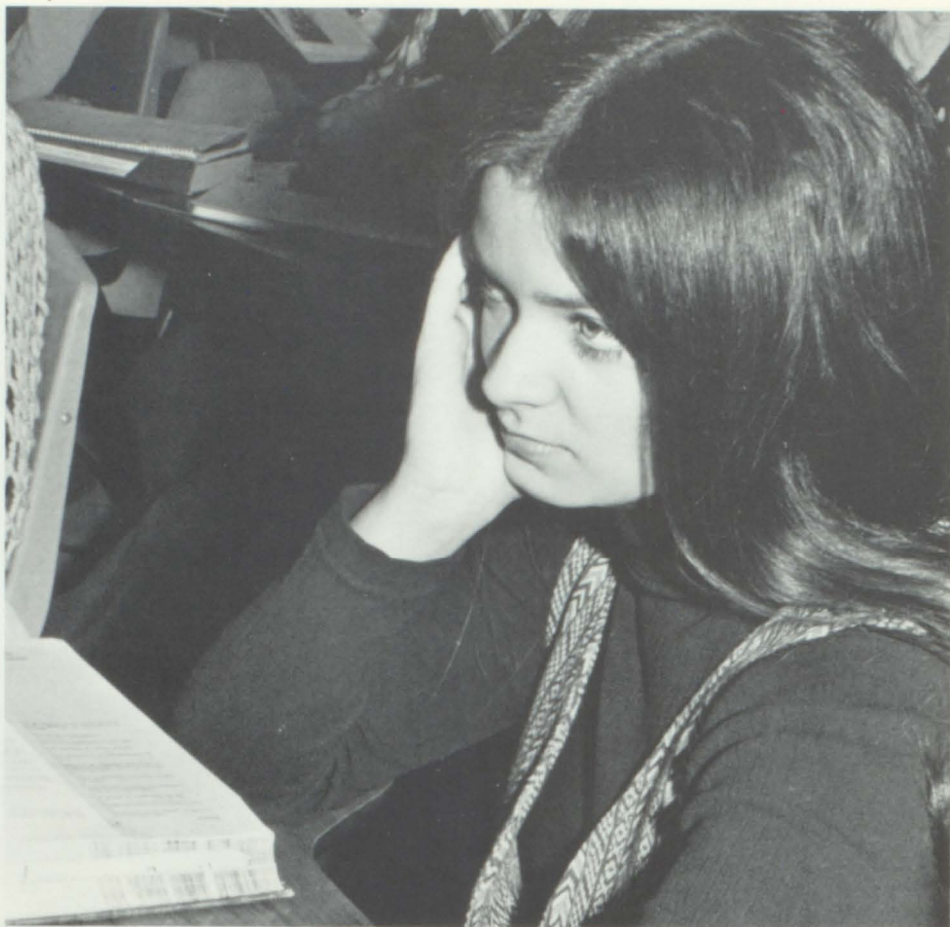

Student Life

As we look at MHS, we, the students, see not only an institution of education, but also an organizer of activities which encourage individual achievement. In this high school, class competition is keen: athletics challenging, and social life rewarding. With education as our main goal, we fix our sights on graduation, an outstanding accomplishment for class and individual. Other sights are aimed towards singular recognition, such as, speech achievements, editors, journalists, scholars--all students in the spirit of competition. Although Student Life is viewed differently by every student one fact is evident--this is the area which makes MHS the school it is.

Wagon Trails Revue

The first annual Wagon Trails Revue, held September 25, 1971, was a night full of entertainment and fun. The entertainment, provided by the Wagon Trails Staff and the student body, consisted of dancing, singing whistling, and baton twirling. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Wagon Trail's Queens. Rachael Endsley was crowned Miss Wagon Trails 1971, and she along with her court; Miss Junior Class, Jan Goodman; Miss Sophomore Class, Lee Ann Covey; and Miss Freshman Class, Toni Martin reigned over the evening's festivities.

A dance followed the revue with Cinnamon Empire supplying the music.

Homecoming Win Over Speedway

Homecoming began as usual with each class determined to create the winning float, and show its talent in the Homecoming Parade. The parade was the biggest ever at MHS.

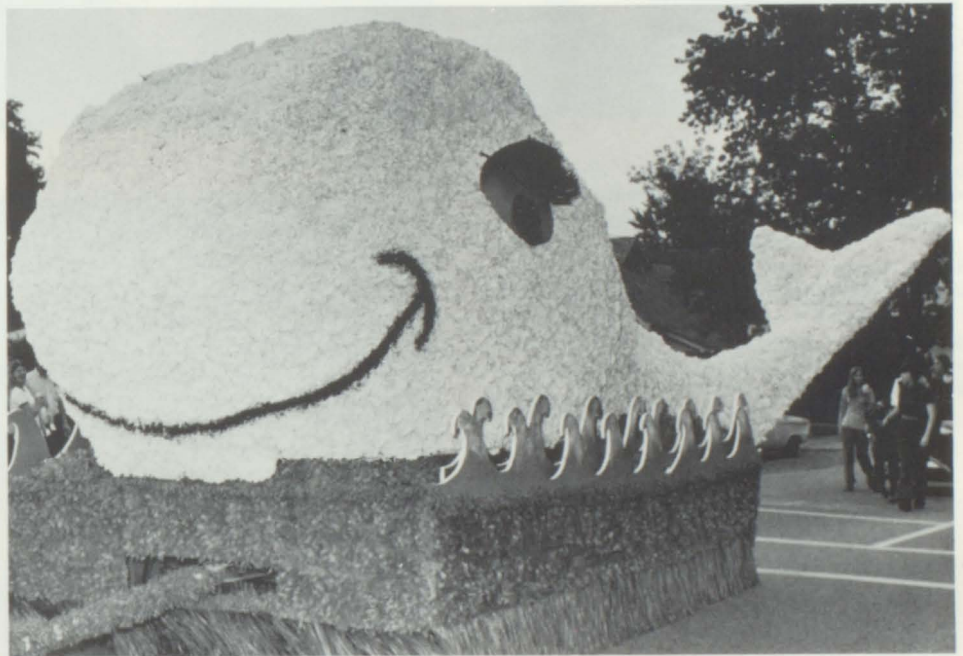

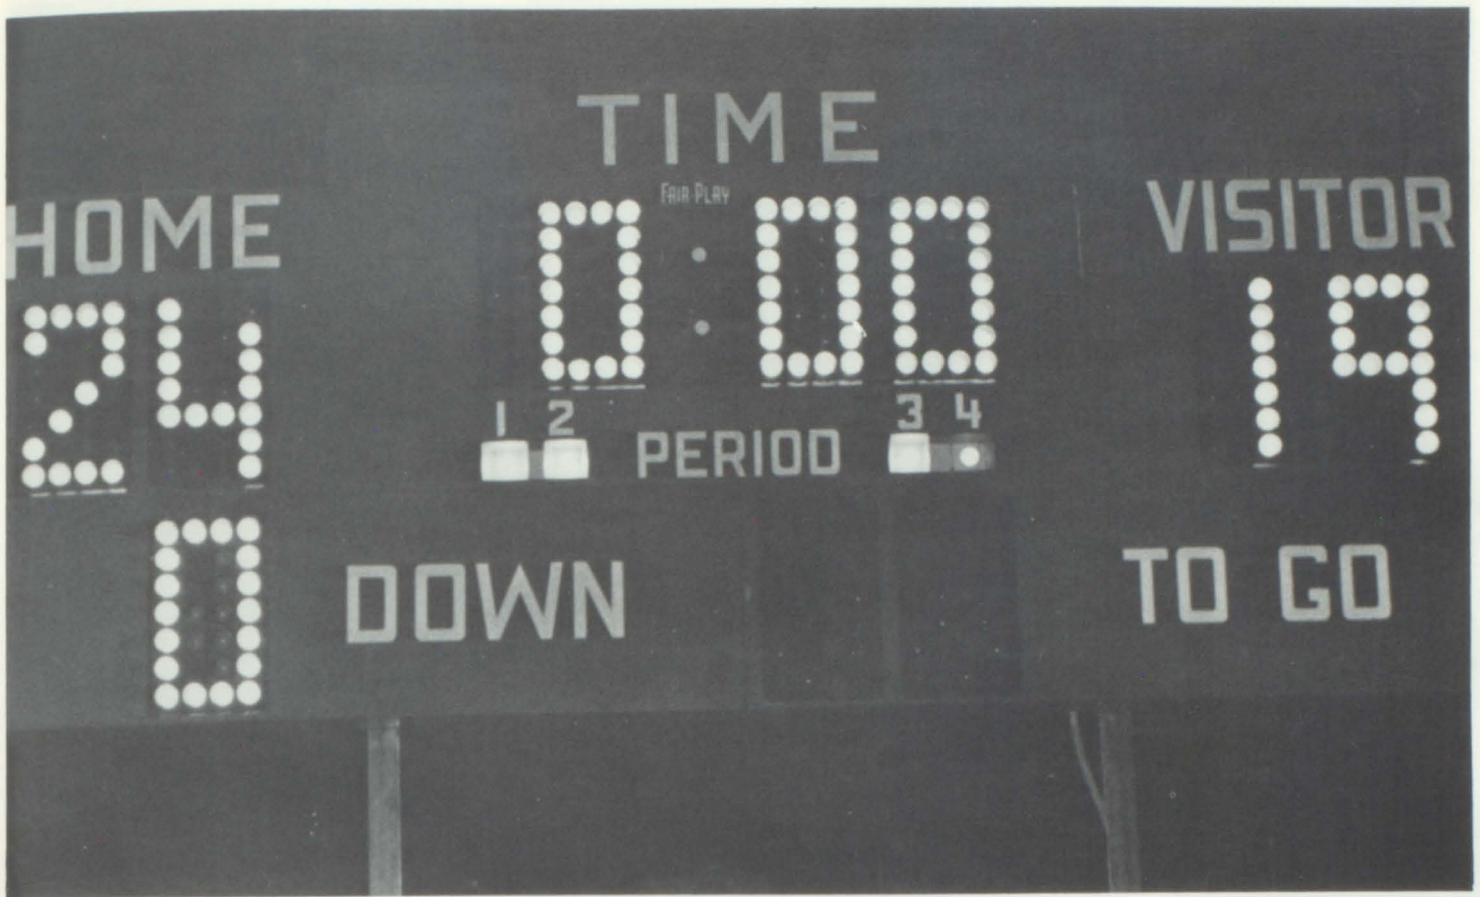

During the halftime of the game, the main activities were the crowning of the Homecoming Queen and Princess and the announcement of the winning float. Senior, Peggy Palmer, was the 1971 Homecoming Queen, and Sophomore Kathy McGuire, was crowned Princess 1971. The Senior's float creation, "Seniors Expect a Whale of a Victory," was awarded first place in the float competition.

After the halftime activities, the Pioneer determination brought the game to a close with a 24-19 win over the Speedway Sparkplugs.

The Homecoming celebration ended with the annual coronation dance with music supplied by "Pure Funk."

The student body will surely agree that Homecoming 1971 was truly a "whale of an evening at MHS."

Top: As we look at the scoreboard, we see that the Sparkplugs have run out of time!
 Lower Right: The Senior's whale was the first winner for the class of '72.

Disappointment at Sectionals

Excitement was contagious at MHS for students and faculty as the week of sectionals drew near. Each class displayed its school spirit by creating its sectional hall decoration. Juniors captured first place with their theme, "We'll Still A Victory." Sophomores came in second place, while seniors received third and freshmen fourth.

Finally the night of the game arrived with much disappointment in store for the Pioneers. Although the Pioneer team led the Danville Warriors most of the game, but in the final minutes of the fourth quarter, the Warriors took the lead. The game ended with a score of 77-72 and the Pioneers suffered one of the most frustrating loses of the 1971-72 season.

Prom 1972

April 29 was the date set for the 1972 Junior-Senior Prom. As the tradition goes, the junior class planned the Prom and did all the work for the seniors. The Sherwood Country Club was selected by the junior class as the place for the Prom to be held. The theme, "Springtime Fantasy," was well developed by the use of flowers and a springtime-like atmosphere. Refreshments were served to all, and the Maury Stalcup band provided music until 12:00 P.M.

The Post Prom, which was organized by the parents of the junior class, began at 1:00 A.M. and lasted until 4:30 A.M. The theme used was "Fun-time U.S.A." A variety of games were set up in the MHS gymnasium from which prizes could be won.

Awards Day

Halls of MHS were bare after Awards Day of 1972 when the Seniors walked the halls as graduates-to-be for the last time. They left with the knowledge of those students who had received scholarships from guest speakers, awards from different departments and teachers of MHS, and the announcement of the gift the Senior Class of 1972 would present to the school. The Awards Day of 1972 was the last time the four classes of 1972 would be together at a convocation of MHS.

The annual Sports Banquet was held on Saturday night, May 20, 1972. The Outstanding Athlete Award of 1972 went to Dick Crane. Others receiving awards for outstanding participation were: Mark Powell, Football; Mark McGuire, Wrestling; Dick Crane, Cross Country; Russ Record, Tennis; Jerome Witte, Basketball; Ed Plummer, Track.

Graduation

1972

MHS graduated 12 seniors at mid-term and 202 seniors at Commencement, May 21, 1972. Salutatorian, Babs Sanefer, spoke on achieving success in later years. Dick Crane, class president, remembered past experiences, and Valedictorian, Roy Ringenburg, spoke on God and America. Principal, Kendall Keller, presented the class to Superintendent, William Curry, who, in turn handed each senior the well-earned diploma. Mr. Curry then announced that the Class of 1972 were graduates of MHS. The class rose to turn their tassels; and as they sang the Alma Mater, eyes became misty. After they left the gymnasium, the class gathered in the cafeteria where they were congratulated by friends, relatives, and faculty.

Organi- zations

As we look at M.H.S., we remember the fun of clubs and organizations. Meetings were held every Friday, with a variety of clubs from which to choose. Many students and teachers were involved in various activities of each club: field trips, bake sales, plays, musicals, variety shows, revues, Old Settlers booths, and many others.

National Honor Society

Sports

As we look at MHS, we see many rewards given in return for the hard work and determination from our athletes. This year, Mooresville wrestlers received a first place sectional trophy. Football players rejoiced over their first victory over Speedway in Pioneer history. The tennis team captured 5 of 7 championships in the Mid-State Conference. Golfers posted their best record to date. School records were broken by several MHS cindermen. New coaches directed the basketball team throughout the season. The cross country team was honored to have the outstanding senior athlete on the All-Conference team. 1971-72 was successful for all sports.

Deter- mination Defeats Speedway

Victory came at Homecoming! The spirited Pioneer team plowed over Speedway's Sparkplugs with a 24-19 score, which marked our first victory over Speedway in Pioneer history. Homecoming victory and a win over Cascade accentuated the 2-8 grid season.

Head coach Nick Baker and his assistants, Norb Johnson and Mark Brewer, directed the Pioneer team through the fall season.

Grapplers Successful Again

This was the first year that the Pioneers have ever won the Sectionals. Second in the Regionals was the best finish yet to date. Warren Grubb, who placed first in the Regionals, was only the second MHS wrestler to compete in the state wrestling tourney, but was not fortunate enough to place.

Six lettermen competed throughout the year and were instrumental in achieving wins in the M.H.S. Holiday Tourney, the Mid-State Conference, the IHSAA Sectionals, and runner-up in the IHSAA Regionals. This year's record was 6-7.

The varsity team was coached by Mr. Randy Qualitza and the reserve by Mr. Ron Moore. This year the freshmen, for the first time, had their own coach, Mr. Greg Silver.

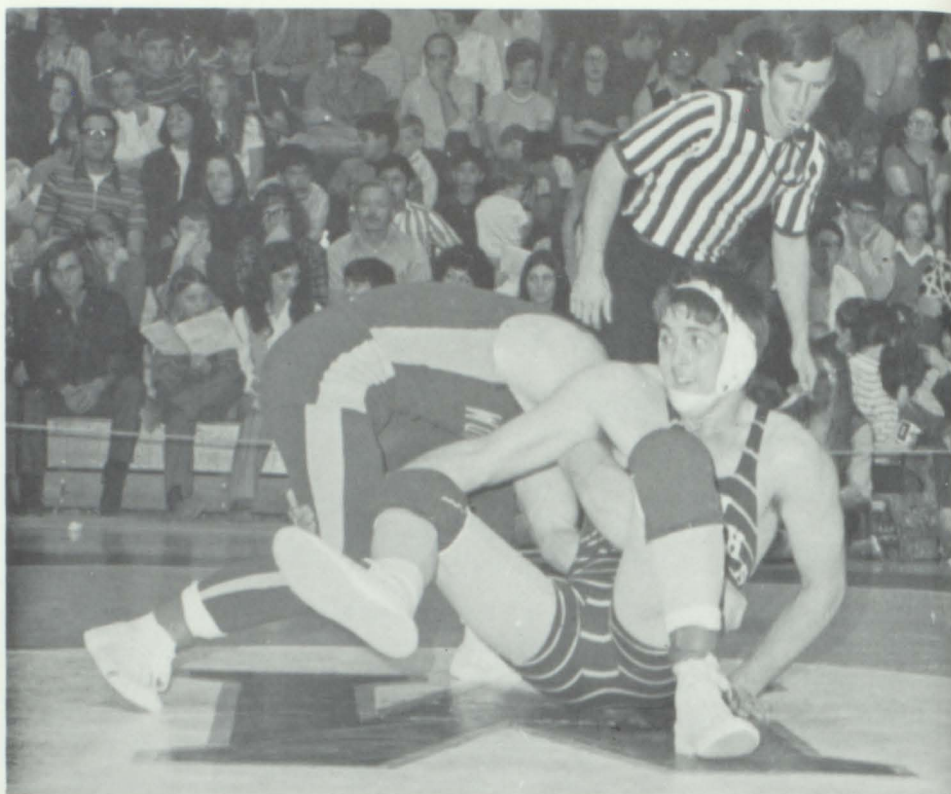

Champions of the various tourneys were: Warren Central Invitational; Ron Bean. M.H.S. Holiday Tourney; Ron Bean, Gene Loomis, Mark McGuire, Will Atwood, and Warren Grubb. Mid-State Conference; Ron Bean, Gene Loomis, Mark McGuire, Jeff Finch, Will Atwood, and Warren Grubb. Leaders in School Spirit

Skill, coordination and the ability to have precise timing with other cheerleaders, determine the outcome of a good cheerleader. These people will support the teams of MHS whether they are winning or losing. As the years go on, MHS cheerleaders will create school spirit in such a way that Mooresville will not be forgotten.

Academics

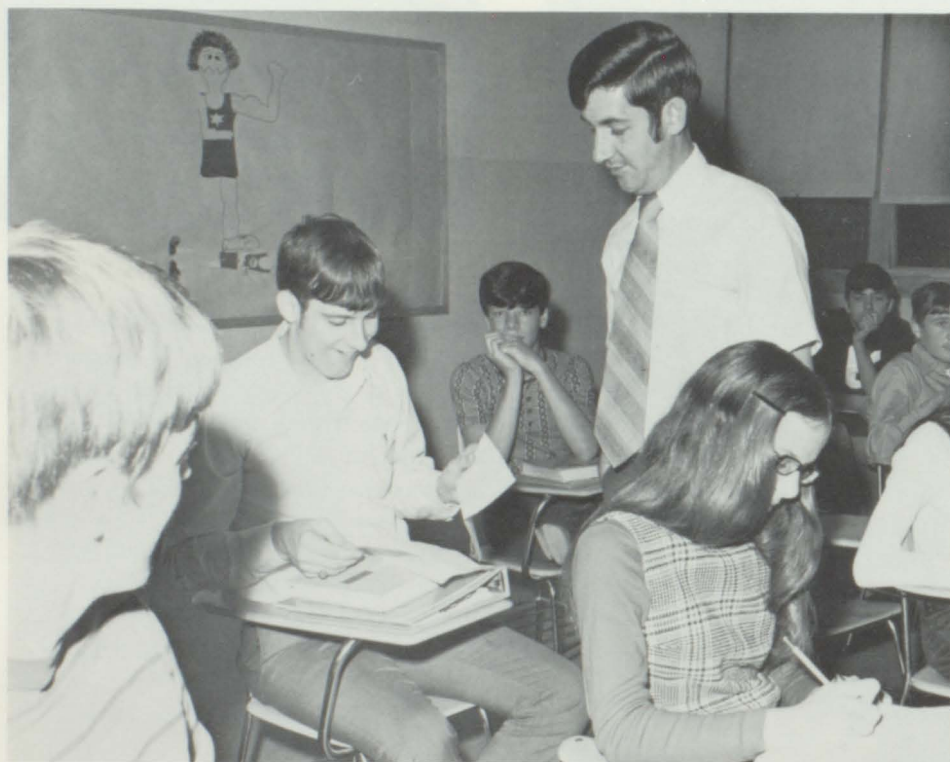

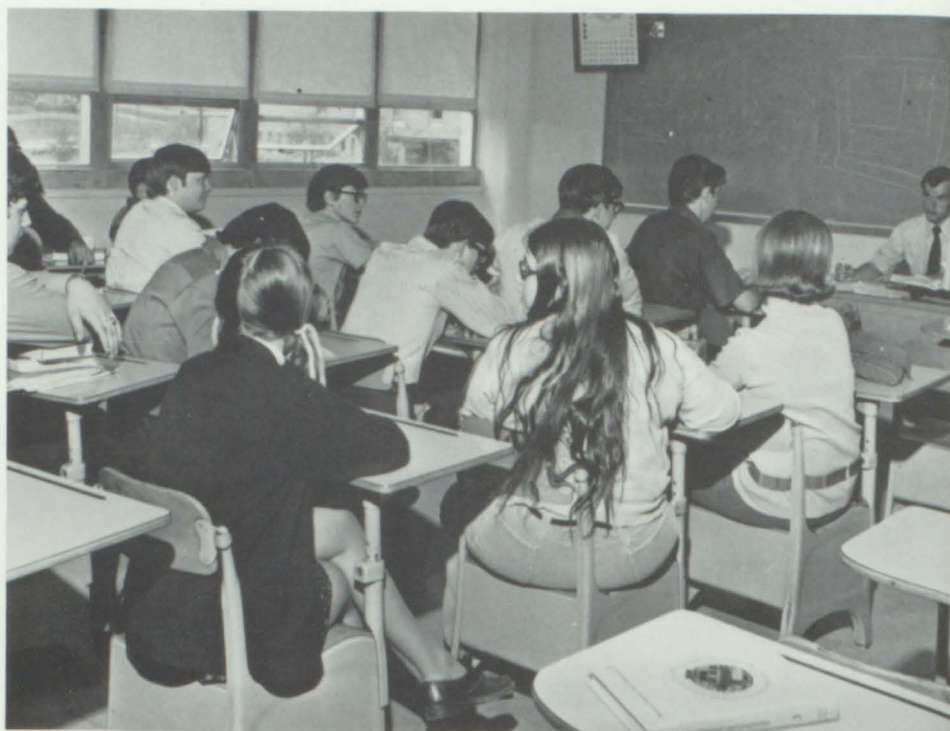

As we look at MHS, we see that the 1971-72 year compelled students to learn and to enjoy learning. Classes involved activities among the students and teachers, instead of a constant lecture-type situation of the teachers to the students. Students learned through experience and actual participation. Over-all, the classroom situations were more relaxed, and the students learned more than ever before. Students are determined to make MHS the best of schools.

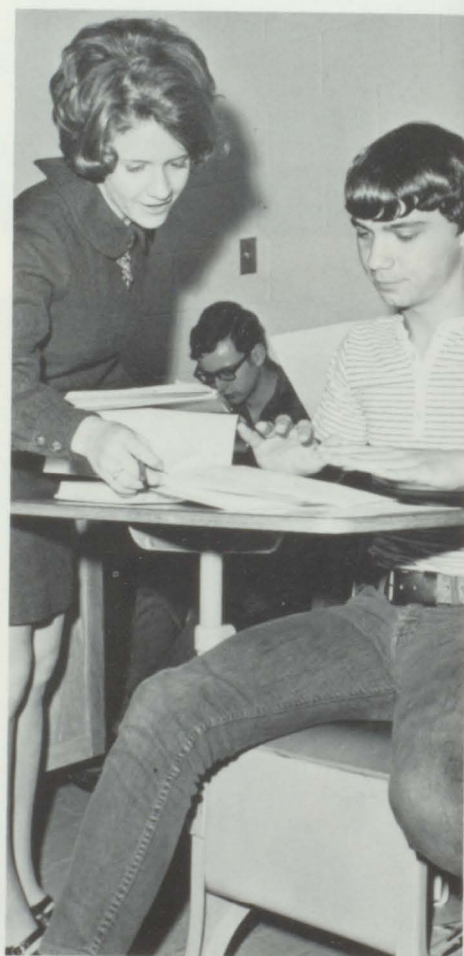

Native Language

Communication often depends upon a well-developed language. Students at MHS learn to develop not only their own English language but also several foreign languages as well. They learn the use of the language for business, teaching, politics, and other speaking professions. These professions require good use of sentences that are well-developed and punctuated correctly. In their future years, after graduation, students will find that their English language will come into use a great deal; and they will often realize how much of it they learned at MHS.

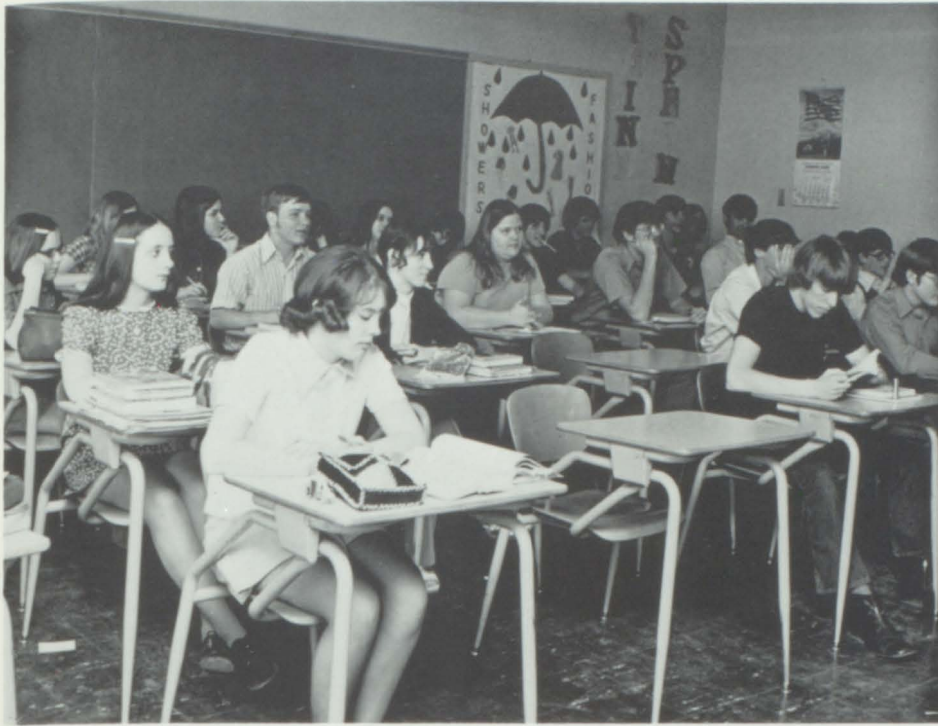

Right: Students listen intently as they learn the fundamentals of Grammar from their teacher, Mr. Franklin.

Right: "My paper is finished," says Danny Robling to Mrs. Hadley.

Foreign Communication

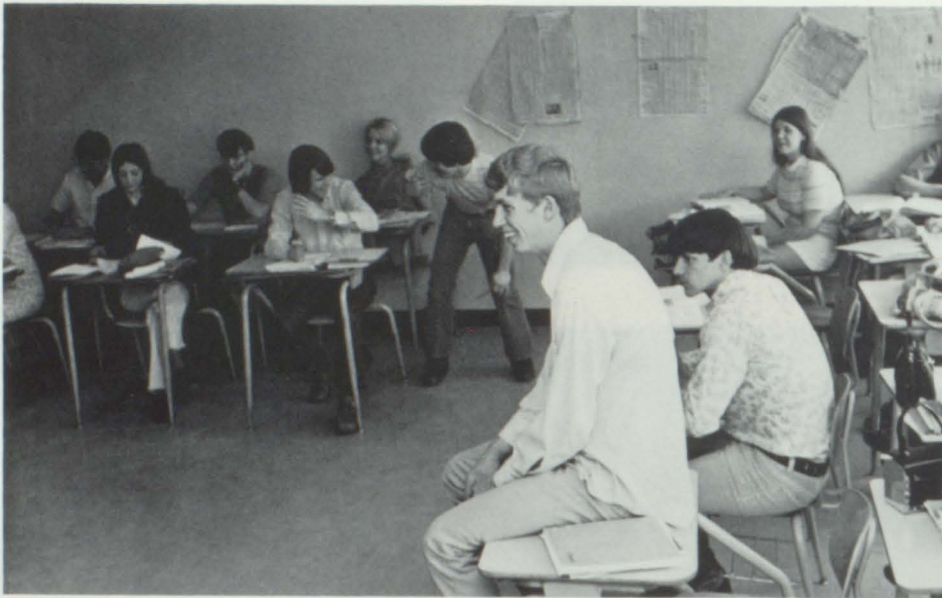

There are quite a few countries that require the skill of a language other than that of their own. MHS has a great department for studying and learning different foreign languages. In this department, the students learn how to have subject-verb agreement, pronoun agreement, and many other language skills. MHS has a competent department and will continue to have one as the future years go by.

Times in History

Students of MHS's History Department profit from mistakes made by men in the past and from success made by these men. Student study these mistakes so that they can try to realize what could have been done to prevent them. Past success is studied so the students can realize how it can be improved within the future years. History of MHS is made by students of the past, the present, and the future.

Explorations of Matter

Intelligence is portrayed among the students of MHS when they perform scientific experiments based upon assumptions. Decomposition of compounds, filtration of liquids, and distillation are among these experiments of water which are performed. Most of these experiments that the science classes do require time and skill to perform them. Students have learned from these experiments and many other activities of science that will enlighten them in their future years—in and out of MHS.

Harmony in Music

Choir and Band provide students with an introduction into the fine arts. Cooperation, determination, and responsibility maintain a first in the importance to make a successful music department. Our music department has been very successful in its endeavors—the highlights for both departments being a first at Southport Marching Contest for the Marching Pioneers and a two-night run of "Hello Dolly" for the choir.

Preparation in Shop

Wood, metal, drafting, and automotive shops make up the shop curriculum. In class, students learn not only about industry and the problems surrounding it. The future holds many career opportunities for students as they look forward into the years, when they will build newer, more modern buildings. MHS will play an important part of building these dreams. They will have much to look forward to.

Upper left: Cleaning machines is quite so easy, as Gregg McGuire and Larry St. Martin find out.

Techniques and Design

When enrolled in an Art Class, a student uses not only his hands, but also his mind. The two main divisions of art are the ability to conceive and the procedure in which this idea is developed. MHS Art students work with various types of art and techniques. Included in these are prehistoric art, batik, clay, and water color.

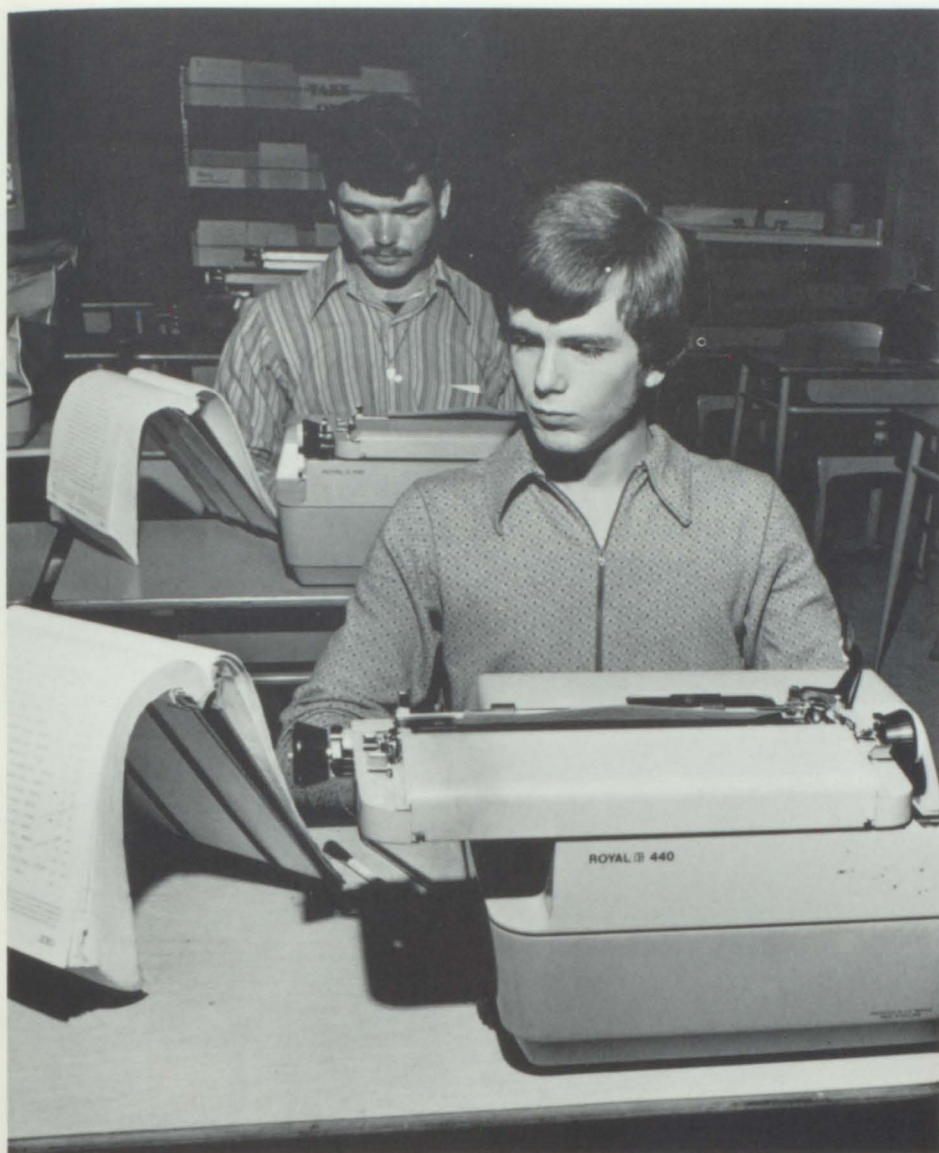

Sewing, cooking, and taking care of, or designing a home are a few of the abilities students acquire while taking Home Ec. Beginning students learn nutritional value of foods, unfamiliar sewing terms, and good grooming. Third year students learn interior designing and fourth year students learn what they have missed in the years passed. Thus, the MHS Home Ec. Department will create several of our future homemakers.

Top: Love is the thought that Warren Grubb wishes to express on his kite.

Bottom: Home Ec. 4-S students prepare candies under the supervision of Mrs. Harrington.

Facts and Figures

Today the students of MHS are faced with many problems. The Mathematics Department is helping the students acquire the solution to some of these problems. From a two year general course to a five year academic course students are allowed to explore into the depths of their minds.

As students of MHS enter the world of business, they are caught up in a whirlwind of new and pressing problems. They are prepared for the industrial work by learning the methods of modern day bookkeeping, record keeping and secretarial practice. Typing and shorthand skills are also taught.

Top: Senior Mike Marine finds concentration a must for Typing class.

Sparks of Vigor

Physical fitness is stressed more today than any other time in history and MHS students are learning the "whys" more and more efficiently through health and phys. ed. classes. These classes teach students the fundamentals of physical health as well as give the student a break in the day's monotony where phys. ed. is concerned. Physical ed. and health is a beginning in bettering the future for generations to come!

Skills through Practice

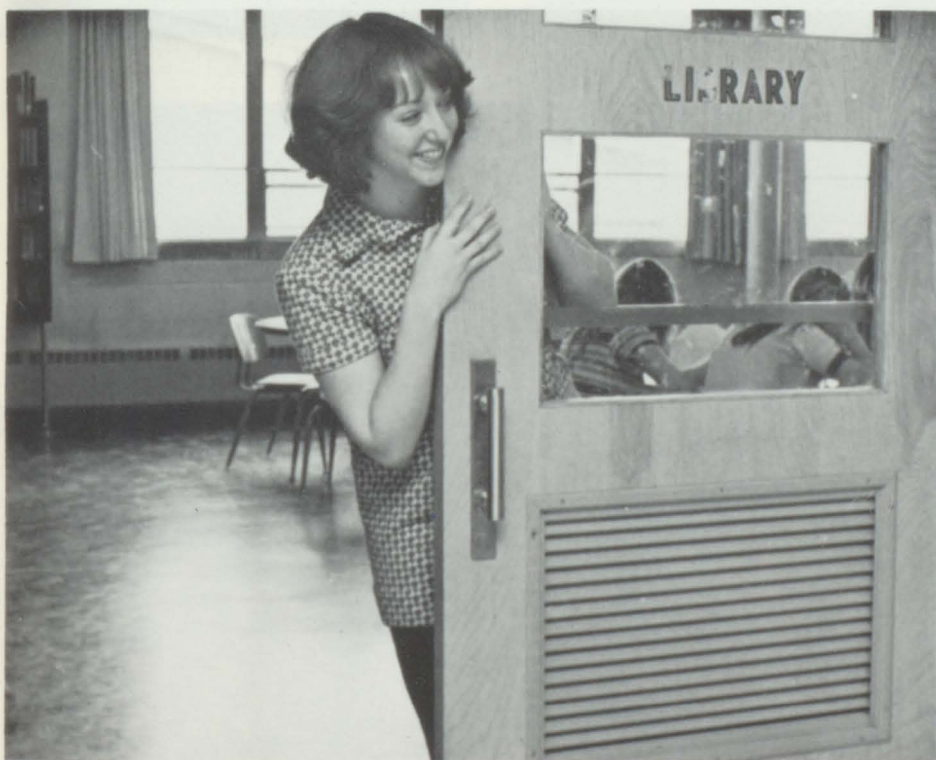

Much needed skills are learned in Driver's Ed. and library sciences. Students find these essential in their preparation for their future lives. Driver's Ed. teaches not only safety in driving but responsibility as well. The library promotes reading, which is also highly essential for survival in today's society. Students have the required essentials needed to better their lives.

Person- alities

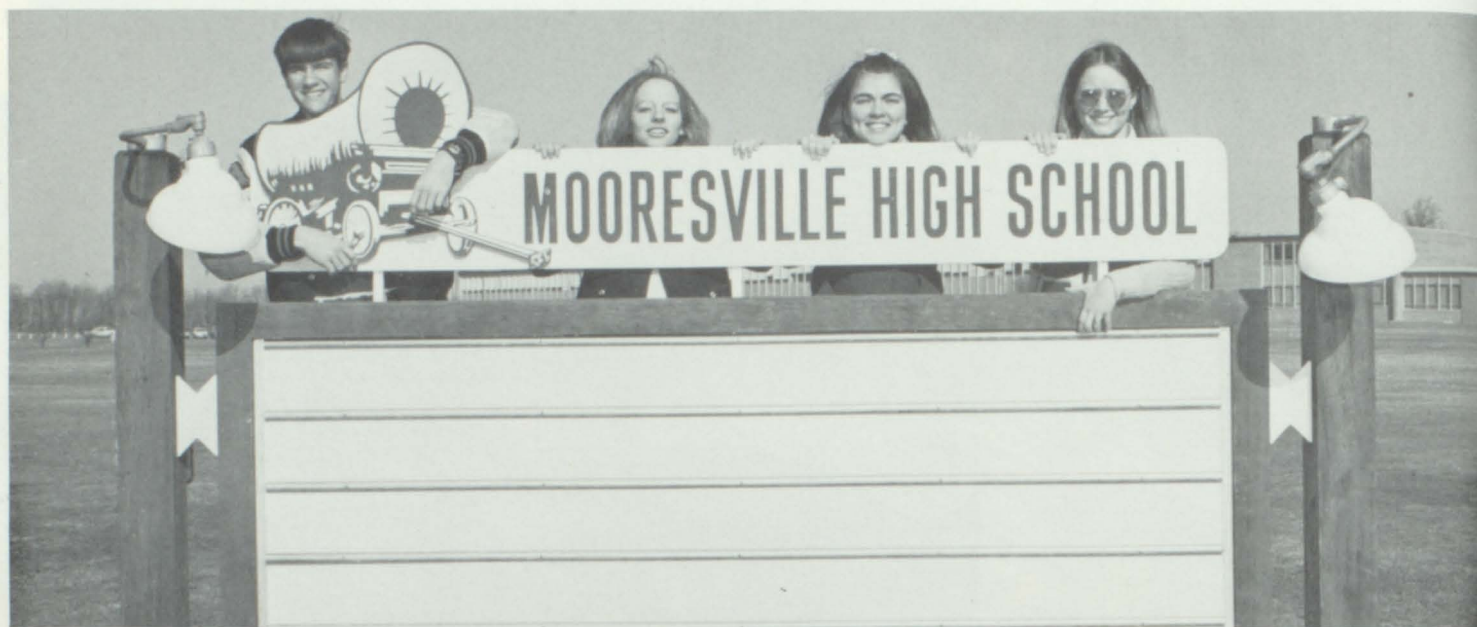

As we look at MHS, individuals come into sight. The way certain personalities view the school, often determines the outlook of the organization. Collectively, this group of students is divided into four classes each with a distinct personality of its own. The Senior, Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman classes contain varied individuals which constitute this select group. Anyway students look at MHS, the personalities, the human element that makes up this high school, takes first place in their lives. It may be a friend, or an enemy, a teacher, or a fellow student, that influences their outlook on life.

In our second year at M.H.S., we ordered class rings. Placing third at Homecoming with our Dragster, after hard work, brought disappointment.

Class officers were elected with Dick Crane, president; Greg Patterson, vice president; Karen Johnson, secretary and Toy Weber, treasurer.

Jeannie Hatfield and Peggy Palmer were Princess Candidates at Homecoming, representing our Sophomore class.

The reserve cheerleaders, consisting of Terri Curtis, Karen Johnson, Beth Kirk, and Bonnie Stevens, created spirit for the Sophomores.

Babs Sandefer and Bill Allen were the Student Council members of the class of 72.

We looked toward to our final two years of M.H.S. with much excitement.

A few of the many activities of our Junior Class were concession stand, prom decorations and magazine sales.

To lead us through the year, class officers; Dick Crane, Farrell Owens, Karen Johnson, and Cecilia Miller were elected.

"A Time For Us" theme brought many happy moments. Jeannie Hatfield was crowned Princess and Mark Powell, Prince.

Dreams of walking down the aisle of graduation, leaving with many memories.

To help us through out busy senior year, Dick Crane was elected president for his fourth time; Farrell Owens, vice president; Charlotte Harper, secretary; Jeannie Hatfield, treasurer.

Our first Homecoming float victory "Pioneers Expect a Whale Of A Victory," with Homecoming Queen Peggy Palmer, started our Senior year off in good spirits.

We attended the prom which was sponsored by the junior class. Baccalaureate services and Commencement exercises were held on May 21.

Juniors 1973

As the members of the class of 1973 look over the achievements of their Junior year, they see both pride and exhaustion. Determination, a desire to have fun, and good leadership by Mrs. Harrington and Mr. Grosskreutz were the main factors for the "73" team's successful activities. The magazine sale profits together with concession sales at football, wrestling, and basketball games furnished enough money to finance a rememberable Junior-Senior Prom. The pain of a third place in float competition (Pioneers Don't Need Spark plugs) was more than soothed by a well-deserved first placed in sectional-hall decorations (Pioneers Will Still a Victory). In preparation for the fast approaching Senior year, the class of "73" chose for their motto "Make Your Fondest Dreams Become Tomorrow's Reality"; for their class colors, lavender and navy blue; and for their class flower, the red rose. Finally, the class of 1973 has reached its supreme goal. Good Bye Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman classes—Hello Seniors—Class of 1973.

Sophomores Second Time Around

As Sophomores started their second year at M.H.S., they were guided and supported by their class sponsors, Mrs. Corrine Peters and Mr. Bob Adams. They placed second in Homecoming float competition. Cathy McGuire was crowned Homecoming Princess. The prom steering committee was selected, and plans for the "73" prom began. The ring committee selected rings, and the class rings were ordered and received late that year. Class spirit was displayed in the sectional hall decorations which placed them second.

Now that the trying Sophomore year is behind them, Sophomores long to be a part of the active, busy, and fantastic life as Juniors.

Class of "75"

Spirited Freshmen contributed a great deal to the intricate organization of MHS. They viewed their first high school year as an opportunity for maturing in order to take on more responsibilities as their years here at Mooresville continue. The class of "75" was the largest class ever to enter the halls of Mooresville High School. Participating in various clubs and activities, sports, Homecoming, drama productions, and concerts enabled the class to gain experience needed for leadership for the rest of their future years at MHS.

Right: Homecoming was the first competitive event the Freshmen entered. "De Smell of De Feet" received fourth place.

Faculty

As we look at MHS, we see various activities fill an exciting year for the faculty. Not only the classroom, but also extracurricular activities of the students aroused the enthusiasm of the teachers. Throughout the year, the faculty represented our school at different functions, and the students were encouraged abundantly. The faculty of MHS was determined not to just watch, but to "get involved."

Management of MHS

At Mooresville, there are many executive positions to be filled. The people who fill these offices must be outstanding in their capability for making important decisions and able to understand the point of view of parents and teachers as well as those problems of the students. Through their intense determination, Mooresvilles administrators strive to reach this fantastic goal.

Top: School Board Members: Wendall Thaler, Vice President; Jack Perry, Secretary; Seth Shields, President; Kenneth Tapp; Charles Raymond

Above: This sign appears in front of the Superintendent's Office where important decisions are made for schools of the Mooresville District.

Guidance for Students

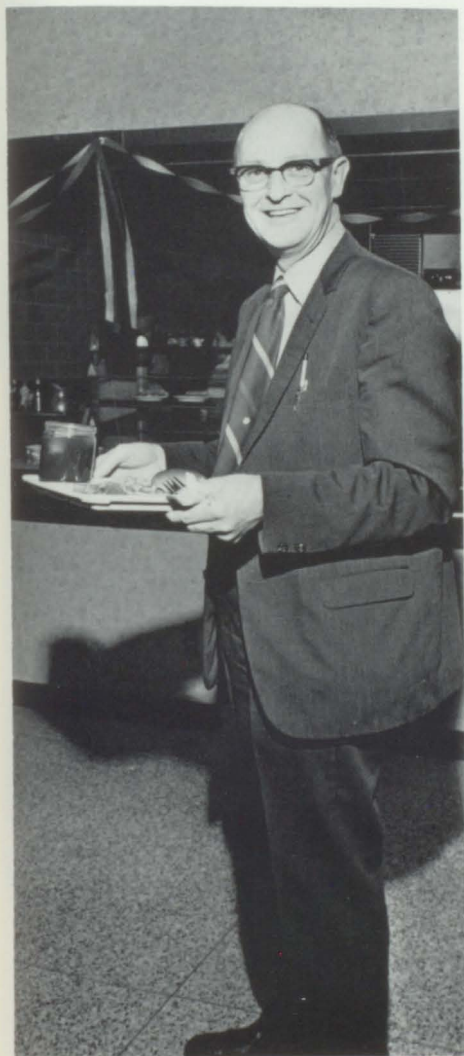

Officials in the main office and also the guidance office are responsible for keeping every aspect of a student's day running smoothly.

When emergencies arise, these people act quickly and efficiently to solve the problems. Then, on the day of graduation, these people receive a sense of satisfaction to know that they have graduated another Senior class successfully.

Bottom middle: Mr. Milburn concentrates in his quiet surrounding.

MHS's Special Assets

Our cooks, custodians, and bus drivers must be included with the important people at MHS. In the cafeteria, our cooks work diligently to prepare adequate menus in both quality and quantity. Although we fail at times to appreciate our custodians, they toil steadily to keep our surroundings tolerable. Our bus drivers provide safe and efficient transit to and from school for out-of-town students. A successful education is dependent upon these reliable people.

Right: Before the noon-hour "rush," Donna McGuire and Doris McClanahan hasten to finish their fried chicken.

Left: Although many students drive, a massive number of students maintain dependence upon the school buses for transportation to and from school.

Trusts of Spirit

Abilities and skills of MHS's secretaries and secretaries of the superintendent's office are in great number. Some of the abilities include such things as taking dictation, making friends, meeting new people, and the ability to answer the telephone. Dictation increases the possible number of letters sent each day to various schools and other places of business. A good typist and filer is needed to keep a neat office. With these growing personalities, making friends and many other unseen talents make our offices "a nice place to visit."

Above: Although her day may be busy, Mrs. Newgent still finds time to smile. Top: No task is too great for Miss Van Hoy, Mrs. Burlingame, and Mrs. Bradford.

Middle: Typing letters, writing passes, and answering the phone are but a few of Mrs. Call's many tasks.

Top right: An increasing amount of problems add up as treasurer Mrs. Haase solves them.

Bottom right: "Being treasurer of MHS is no easy job," says Mrs. Boyd.

Efficiency of Certainty

Teaching the fundamentals of business education is one of the many challenges at MHS. Teachers conquer the business minds of students by causing them to think economically. After this has been accomplished, the teachers want the students to apply their thinking in terms of a real business. This constitutes the activity of the business world today. After having encouraged the "now" students of MHS to excel in the economic world of business, teachers are determined to fulfill their obligations as teachers to the "future" students of MHS.

Left: Mr. William Lake: Proof of his many talents, "Uncle Wiggly" won a go-go dancing contest in Orlean, France. His hobbies include sports and traveling to places such as Europe and the Ozarks. Mr. Lake has taught at MHS for 2 years.

Top: Mrs. Janice Parker: When not listening to "loud stereos," Mrs. Parker is sewing, raising hogs, and farming. Along with this, she complains, "all I do is work!" She has taught at MHS for 6 years.

Top: Mrs. Aloha Landwerlen: While visiting Hawaii, Mrs. Landwerlen had a problem. The Hawaiians did not realize her name was Aloha! Students who do not do what they are told, when they are told, annoys Mrs. Landwerlen. She has taught at MHS for 8 years and is Dept. Chairman.

Top: Mrs. Peggy Saylor: During a cool summer vacation, Mrs. Saylor traveled to Canada where she enjoyed relaxing in a cabin on Lake Huron. She dislikes doing "any" administrative paper work. She has taught at MHS for 6 years.

Middle: Mr. Eugene Dorsch: One person able to boast about being hit by a flying saucer is Mr. Dorsch. He hates to make 125 good copies of a test when he has to use 225 sheets of paper. Mr. Dorsch has taught at MHS for 1 year.

Bottom: Mrs. Pam Shipp: An unusual experience of "Weasel" Shipp was being locked in a filling station. In her spare time she enjoys reading and bowling. Mrs. Shipp has taught at MHS for 1 year.

Bits of Pronunciation

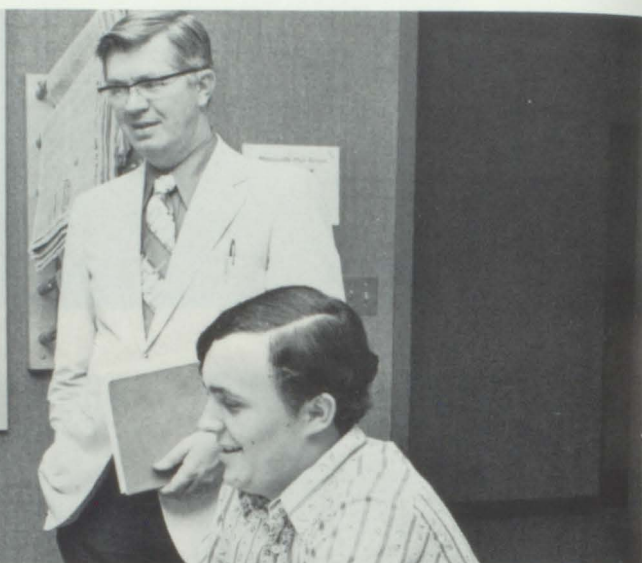

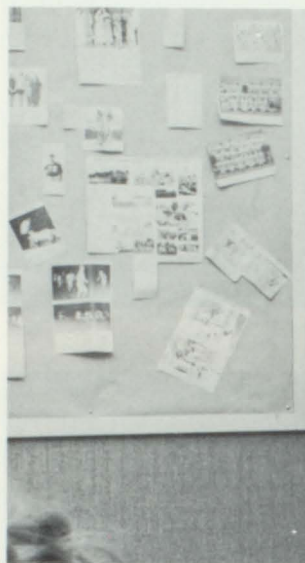

Our English Department, headed by Mr. Albert New, is one of the best available. The English teachers not only teach their respective subjects, but are active sponsors of upcoming organizations which have helped to further the moral of the students as well as the interest of the faculty. The teachers encourage the students to "get involved." Literature has evolved over many years to take the sophisticated shape of today. Determination of the English Department is to mold a better tomorrow with the world today.

Top left: Mr. J. D. Bradshaw, Indiana's professional basketball team, the Pacers, is listed as one of Mr. Bradshaw's hobbies. Along with this, he enjoys water sports and reading. He listed that his unusual experience is teaching. He has taught at MHS for 1 year.

Mr. Richard Franklin: Teachers who like to hear themselves speak are pet peeves of Mr. Franklin. His hobbies include golf, water skiing, reading, and jolopy races. He has travelled south, up to Michigan, and to Milwaukee. He has taught here for 5 years.

Mr. Robert Adams: Christmas was an exciting vacation for Mr. Adams. He spent it in the beautiful climate of Florida! Someone who yaks constantly annoys Mr. Adams; people who think they know all follows. He has taught here for 6 years.

Left center: Mr. Albert New: Under Mr. New's graduation picture in his school annual are the words "His ways are like the Mississippi-lined with bluffs." He has not changed all these years. He has taught at MHS for 7 years.

Top right: Mr. Steve Brunes: Coaching requires quite a bit of Mr. Brunes' time, but he enjoys every minute of it! He played basketball with Rick Mount of the Pacers when he was All-American. 1972 was the first year at MHS for Mr. Brunes.

Bottom left: Mrs. Mary Randolph: Reading novels and attending plays are two favorite pastimes for Mrs. Randolph, which shows why she enjoys teaching English so much. There is no special hero in her life, she just likes people. When asked to relate an unusual experience, occurring in class, she replied, "Nothing funny ever happens to me." She has taught at MHS for 4 years.

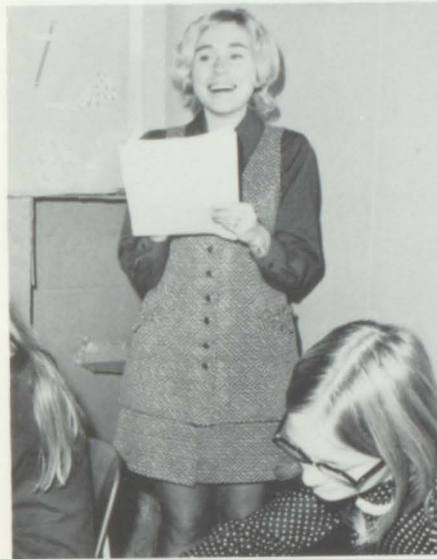

Bottom right: Mrs. Diana Hadley: As sponsor of the Campus Crier, Mrs. Hadley, better known to some of her students as the "Private", did her student teaching at Crispus Attucks, which was an unusual experience for her. She admires people who are optimistic and have a good sense of humor, but she dislikes grading papers after the 85th one. She has taught at MHS for 1 year.

Customs of Countries

Top right: Miss Nancy Norman: Travels of Miss Norman include a trip to Disney World over Christmas vacation. Listed as an unusual experience is when she slept on top of a tent, after leaving the center pole at home. She enjoys arts, crafts, swimming, and sewing. She has taught at MHS for 1 year.

Center right: Mrs. Carolyn Blickenstaff: "Blickey," as Mrs. Blickenstaff is sometimes called, enjoys reading. She likes to read anything including history. She doesn't like for people to work on things other than Spanish during class presentation. She has taught at MHS for 2 years.

Center middle: Mrs. Judy Bengston: Handicapped people who overcome their handicaps seem to catch the eye of Mrs. Bengston. She likes to do needlepoint and to read. Her travels include going to S. Dakota to the Badlands. She has taught at MHS for 5 years.

Center left: Mrs. Connie Newcomb: Theatre and Dramatics catch the eye of Mrs. Newcomb, or Newcy. She likes to participate actively in both. She hates fake mustaches due to an experience during a play. When she kissed the leading man, his mustache stuck to her lip. She has taught at MHS for 2 years.

One of the first steps towards tearing down the barriers between countries is through a common way to communicate. Our foreign language department is a very active part of MHS. Through the student exchange program, teachers as well as students broaden their outlook in regards to a foreign country, and foreign students are exposed to the real America. Foreign language teachers all over the world unite in their determination to achieve "world peace."

Bottom left: Mrs. Betty Roberts: Along with her many interests, Mrs. Roberts, better known as "Fireball," is a licensed swimming instructor. Her initiation for her sorority was unusual; she ate only peas for two days. She has taught at MHS for 6 years.

Top left: Mrs. Mary Bowman: Initiating a new language into a school can be a difficult procedure, but Mrs. Bowman, known to some as "Mumsey," did it exceptionally well! In her spare time, she enjoys writing, macrame, and sponsoring a girl scout troop. She stated that she dislikes noisy places. She has taught here 2 years.

Rays of Intelligence

Science plays a major role in the academic curriculum at MHS. Teachers make a worthwhile effort to teach the students the modern techniques of science today. By determination and cooperation of the teachers, today's students may be tomorrow's scientists.

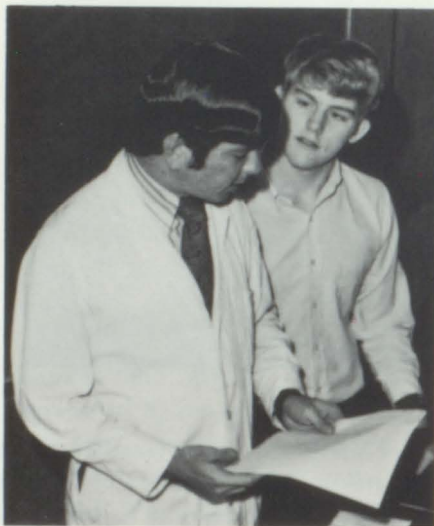

Top: Mr. Mark Brewer: Texas was an exciting vacation for Mr. Brewer because he kept himself busy collecting Indian relics, one of his hobbies. He enjoys sports of all kinds. Vince Lombardi is his idol. Mr. Brewer does not like for people not to discuss a subject because they think they are right. He has taught at MHS for 1 year.

Top right: Mr. David Higgins: "Happy Higgins" becomes annoyed when he discovers that he is not the best ping-pong player in the world. When interviewed, Mr. Higgins told about a time when he karateed a telephone pole in two. Mr. Higgins has been at MHS for 3 years.

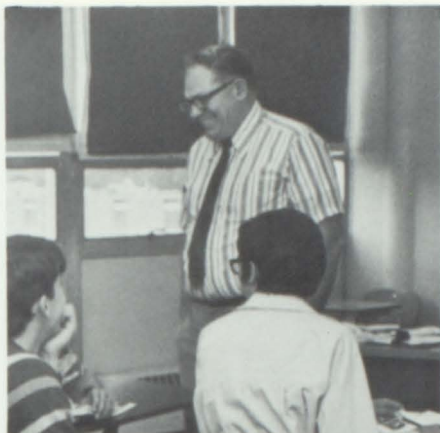

Middle: Mr. Gary Pearson: "Pickle" Pearson in high school and "Jeep" Pearson in college has followed Mr. Pearson up to the present day. He does not like for people to be late to class, to school, or an appointment of any kind. Mr. Pearson has taught at MHS for 5 years.

Right: Mr. Robert Hamm: Hobbies of Mr. Hamm include watching sports on television. He enjoys vacationing around surrounding states. He does not like for people to try to be something they are not. He has taught at MHS for 5 years.

Bottom right: Mr. Hubert Alexander: Disorder led to Mr. Alexander's idol, John Wayne because he keeps order which "Alex" likes. Auto mechanics is his hobby along with traveling to places like Texas. His unusual experience was when he got lost in Taipei, Formosa, with whom? — He'll never tell! He has taught at MHS for 5 years.

Pages of the Past

Lecturing in a History class is quite different from teaching any other course in the curriculum of MHS. Relaying ideas which are proven to be true, presents few problems, but to convey the thoughts behind a man's action is next to impossible. The teachers of our History Department have vigorously studied the mistakes made by men in the past and are determined for students to profit from those mistakes in order to create a better tomorrow.

Top left: Mr. Ronald Moore: Scuba diving and photography are favorite pastimes of Mr. Moore. Getting up on Sunday morning is a pet peeve of Mr. Moore, who has taught at MHS for 2 years.

Middle left: Mr. Lester Gilliam: Traveling is a hobby of Mr. Gilliam. He has traveled to Mexico and Canada. At one time, he lived among the primitive Cuna Indians off the coast of Panama. He has taught at MHS for 3 years.

Top right: Mr. Gerald Williams: Chicago was the starting point of an unusual experience of Mr. Williams. New Orleans was the stopping point. In this time he floated a ship down to New Orleans. He listed hobby as being gardening. He has taught at MHS for 7 years.

Middle right: Mr. Don Adams: Idols of Mr. Adams are his grandfather and a college professor. He likes frank and open people, and enjoys gardening, bookkeeping, and fishing. He has taught at MHS for 4 years.

Mr. Daniel Havens: Golf gets most of Mr. Havens' attention. He enjoys traveling to Chicago and Detroit. The late Robert Kennedy is listed as an idol of his. He has taught at MHS for 3 years.

Top right: Mr. Larry Cordray: People who complain about their own rights, but do not respect the rights of others is a pet peeve of "Captain Cordrey." He idolizes Vince Lombardi and Bob Hope. He has been at MHS for 2 years.

Far right: Mr. Gregory Silver; In addition to participation in many sports, "Hi Ho Silver" as he is sometimes called, likes traveling. His marriage was off to a "great" start when he lost all of his keys on his honeymoon. He has taught at MHS for 1 year.

Bottom right: Mr. Dan Thurston: Reading, fishing, and playing softball are Mr. Thurston's hobbies. Listed as an unusual experience was when he made fun of a man who raises hogs and now complains that the man makes more money than he does. He has taught at MHS for 6 years.

Sparks of Enthusiasm

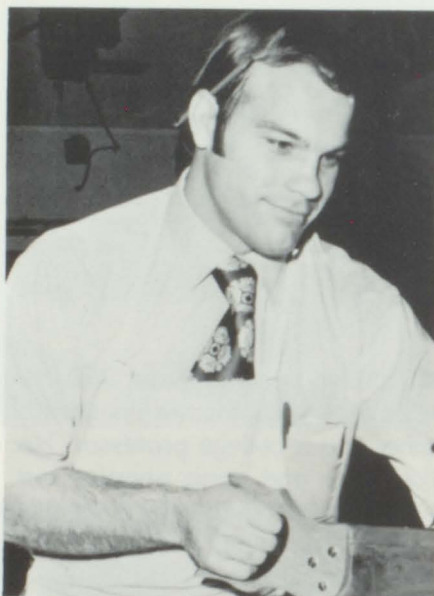

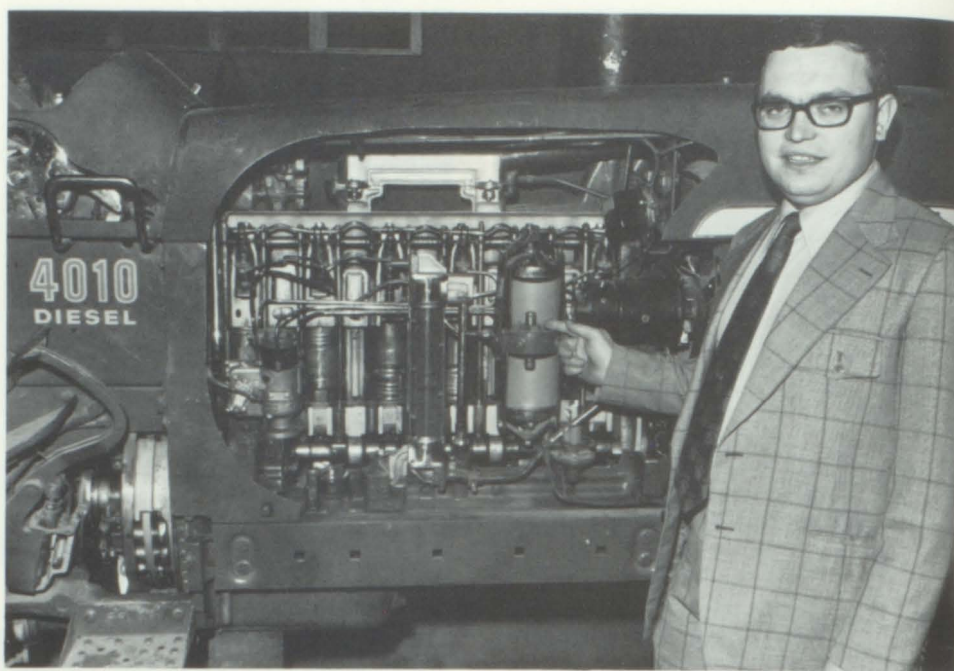

The Industrial Arts Department consists of five distinctively different subclasses. The idea behind this department is to further a student's natural abilities and skills. The determination of these teachers to motivate students will cause a definite change in this society.

Top: Mr. Allen King: Christmas was an extra special holiday for Mr. King this year, because he went to Florida to spend his honeymoon. His wife receives all of his attention. He does not care for people who talk and do not work. His hobbies are farming and working with cars. He has taught at MHS for 2 years.

Middle: Mr. Randal Qualitza: Fanatic about Westerns and War movies, Mr. Qualitza also enjoys drawing. At one time, he even considered becoming an architect or commercial artist. Our national welfare and the idiotic drivers on the highway bother Mr. Qualitza. His first year of coaching at MHS was a great one; he ripped his pants at a home meet! He has taught at MHS for 5 years.

Right: Mr. Dale Ricketts: Now, when "Lefty" Ricketts looks back, he sees that his high school coach has a great influence on his becoming a teacher and most of all a coach. His hobbies include all sports, both watching and participating. Mr. Ricketts has traveled to the Bahamas, and would like to live in Florida. This is his first year as teacher and coach at MHS.

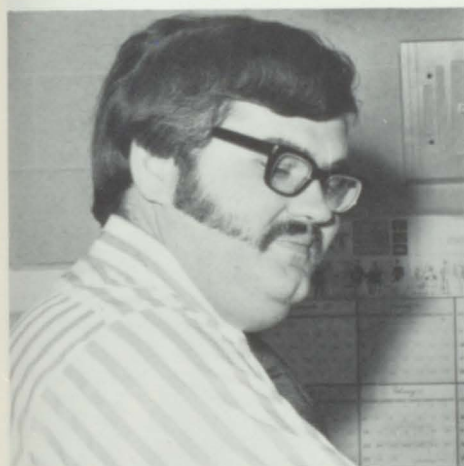

Bottom Right: Mr. Richard Ratliff: People have some odd pet peeves, but Mr. Ratliff has the oddest: Dan Spoon! Right, Dan? He listed his hobbies as reading, tinkering with machinery, and drawing. He has taught at MHS for 5 years.

Mr. Frank Riley: His summer vacations and travels in the past have been to the coast, the mountains, and to Boston. Some future trips include Arizona. The "little ol' drafting teacher," who has been at MHS 8 years, lists his hobbies as making candles, gardening, caning chairs, and glass hobby crafts.

Notes of Excitement

In the 1971-72 year the Mooresville Pioneers' Music Department consisted of the band directed by Mr. Jerry Weber and his assistant Mr. Dilky, and our high school choir which was conducted by Mr. Kenneth Jones. Among the big events of the year were the Variety Show, sponsored by the band, and the Hello Dolly musical sponsored by the choir. With the cooperation and determination of these directors, our high school was made more enjoyable for all. Also, we would like to extend our appreciation to Mrs. Jerry Weber for her choreographing of our Pioneers' performances.

Top: Mr. Kenneth Jones: Stopping the car in the middle of the street to do jumping-jacks was an unusual experience for Mr. Jones while with his fiancé. On the day he was to be married, he needed a haircut and received a burr by mistake. He has traveled to S. Dakota, Canada, and all over the west. He sings in a gospel quartet, plays euchre, and takes pictures for his hobbies. Since music is one of his hobbies, Doc Severinson is his idol. He can't stand to have two tops or two bottoms of a bun for a hamburger. He has taught at MHS for 2 years.

Left: Mr. Jerry Weber: Photography, electronics, golf, and tennis are the hobbies of Mr. Weber. If Mr. Weber were to become a professional baseball player, he would be most like Ernie Banks, whom he idolizes. One of his unusual experiences was when his car horn went off in the middle of the night, in -20° weather! Mr. Weber's pet peeve is people who do not try as hard as they should on semester finals. Mr. Weber has taught at MHS for 4 years.

Above: Mr. John Dilky: Camping in the Rocky Mountains is "Cowboy's" favorite way to spend his vacation time. To engage an incompetent auto mechanic for the purpose of making adjustments on his car annoys him immensely. This is Mr. Dilky's first year as assistant band director.

Spices for Color

Being an art teacher is quite different from teaching any other subject. The challenge for the teacher is to cause the student to think in a creative manner. As most students know, few people have ever accomplished this feat within the walls of MHS. Once this spark has been lit, the teacher, attempts to guide the student to further exertion. The finished project produced from an art class is due to sheer determination.

One main purpose for our Home Economics Department is to prepare students for the future. Our department is highly qualified to teach all of the new techniques used in home-making. To use an old cliché "A stitch in time saves nine," but the stitch can also determine an unpredictable outcome.

Top left: Mrs. Sarah Phelps: An unusual experience for Mrs. Phelps was signing her maiden name to papers after 30 years of marriage! Golf is her hobby, and her dream is to retire in Florida. People with no ambition is her pet peeve. She has been at MHS for seven years.

Top right: Miss Lida Gordon: If you want to know how sleeping in a car feels, talk with Miss Gordon. She enjoys hiking and photography. She has taught here for one year.

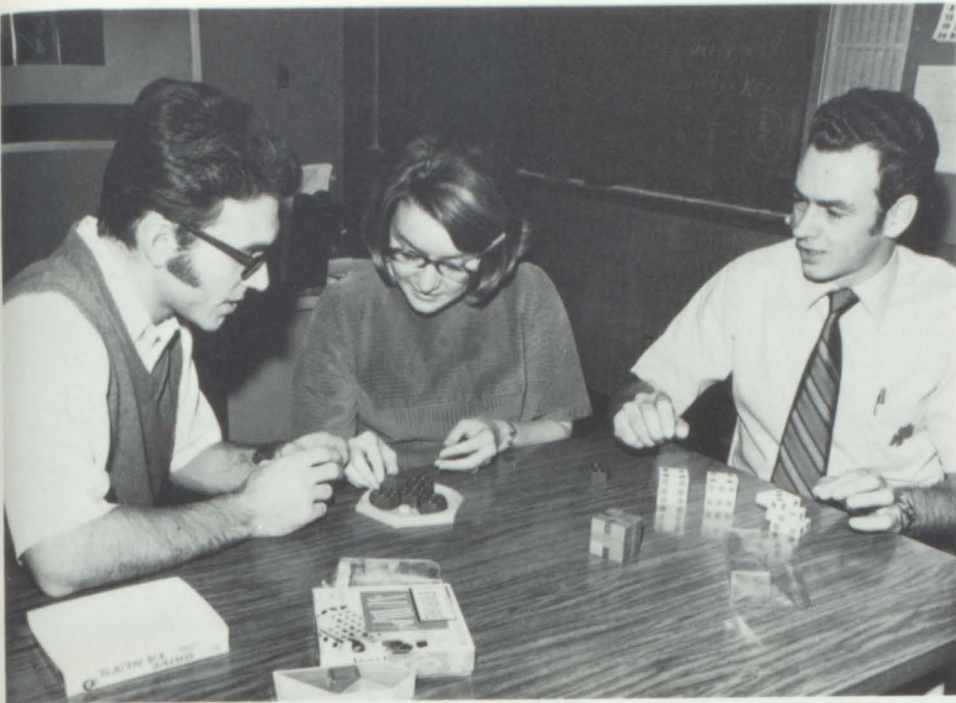

Middle left: Mrs. Lesette Harrington: Sewing, cooking, and crafts are her hobbies. Some people hurt themselves on a trampoline; she broke her arm putting one away! She has taught at MHS for two years.

Middle Right: Mr. Louis Weber: People who judge others by their appearances is a pet peeve of "Tiny" Weber. He has taught students of MHS for two years.

Bottom: Mrs. Sherry Gingery: "Ring around the bathtub," is "Mrs. G's" pet peeve! On her honeymoon, she went to Colorado. This is her first year at MHS.

Adding to Abilities

Many people fail to realize the amount of hard work and qualifications needed to become a math teacher. The members of our Math Department more than meet these requirements. In addition to the essentials, Mooresville's teachers possess infinite intellect.

Top: Right: Mr. Norbert Johnson: An answer to a summer vacation came out as "what vacation?" He likes to watch sports and work puzzles. His favorite pastime is patrolling "The Hall" during third lunch period. He has taught at MHS for nine years.

Bottom Left: Mr. Lee Musgrave: College was an exciting time, even when he ran over some suitcases; some old lady asked him if he always did that! His hobbies are bee-keeping, gardening, and cars. He has been at MHS for two years.

Bottom: Mrs. Patricia Hufford: Mrs. Hufford enjoys sewing and cooking. She dislikes for students to come to class unprepared. She said being informed by the school nurse "that the T.B. tests were for teachers only," was an unusual experience. She has been here one year.

Bottom Standing: Mr. Robert Grosskreutz: He likes to sleep, trapshoot, and hunt. An unusual experience was when a lady came up to him, hugged him, and told him they were going to spend the weekend together. We later found out she was a cousin whom he had never met. He has taught at MHS for two years.

Top Left: Mr. Dale Graves: Mr. Graves lists his idol as Martin Luther King. His hobbies are developing negatives, playing the guitar, and sports. Mr. Graves has been at MHS for three years.

Top: Mrs. Patricia Wilson: "Embarrassment is when your boyfriend is walking behind you and your skirt comes down," says Mrs. Wilson. She passes the dreary months sitting by her pool; the pool is filled with dirt. She enjoys painting. She has taught at MHS for four years.

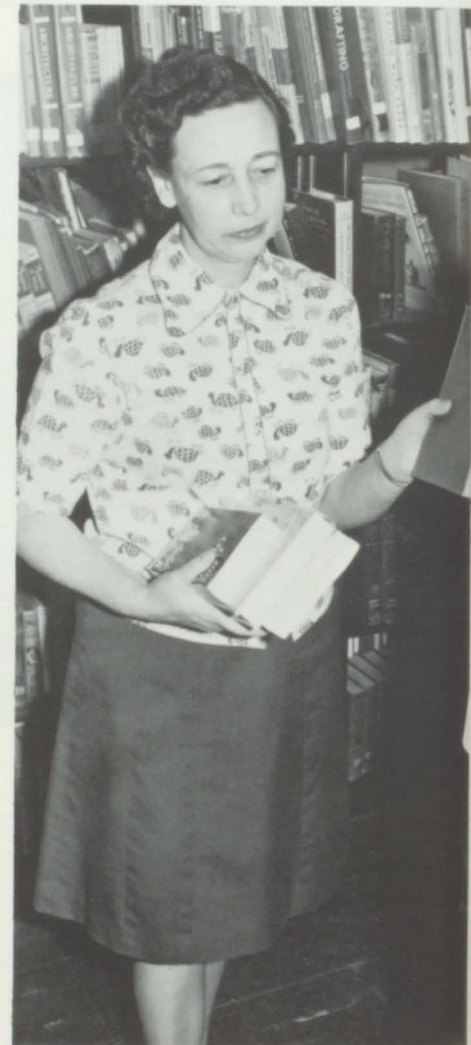

Learning in Different Ways

Two more departments which are rap-gaining student interest at MHS are the library and driver's education classes. Our library encourages students to enjoy good literature and provides study materials in various areas. In Driver's Education, students are taught the fundamentals of good driving and rules of the road.

Miss Holly Hall, upper right: Our librarian is new at MHS this year. She spends much of her time with sewing, reading and sports. This summer, she studied at Purdue, where she originally majored in French and minored in Library Sciences; however, she intends to continue in the latter. The thing she dislikes about her job is the bookwork involved. Her unusual experience is she was asked to homecoming and the prom by students.

Mrs. Hester Gorman, Lower Right: A dog that usually stayed outside went to school with our library assistant's children. If they had not taken it with them, it would probably have been killed when a tornado came that day. This is what she lists as her unusual experience. She enjoys camping and has taught at MHS for 6 years.

Mr. Max Gregory, Lower Left: Driver's Education proves to be an exciting course especially when the instructor is known as Lerch to his students. During his course of teaching, he has been victimized by several incidents, including one in particular: the time he leaned on one desk, causing three others to topple over! This summer he traveled to Cincinnati to enjoy a favorite pastime—baseball. He also enjoys playing basketball and helping students when he can. What's one thing that really bugs him? Students who like to ask stupid questions. This year was his first at MHS.

Fitness in Phys. Ed.

Health and Phys. Ed., 2 of the more important departments in our curriculum, promote the importance of good physical fitness. Our teachers are qualified in their field and try, to the best of their abilities, to get the job done. Students enjoy the physical education classes as a time of relaxation, recreation and a break in a monotonous daily routine. The students agree that our physical education and health departments are 2 of the finest in the state.

Mr. Nickey Baker, Above, Left: Although he yells a lot, whistles some, and thinks a little, you couldn't miss hearing his familiar voice as he walks down the hall singing. Drawing all of those x's and o's for football plays is "Comador's" favorite hobby. He doesn't seem to like small x's and o's. He visits Lake Gage during the summer. "Opening Count", says Mr. Baker with a smile, is an unusual experience. He has taught at MHS for 5 years.

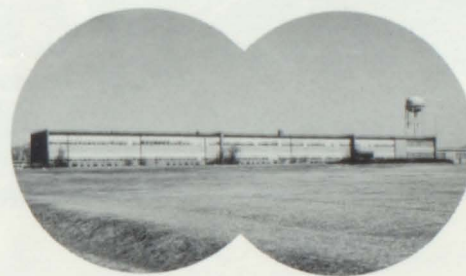

Mrs. Corrine Peters, Lower Left: A lake in Owen County provides the scene for summer fun for Mrs. Peter's family. She, Mr. Peters, and their four daughters enjoy camping and boating so much, that they own their own boat.

"Pete" enjoys all sports, particularly tennis and swimming and hopes some day to write a book on children. She has been at MHS for 6 yrs.

Ads

As we look at MHS, we see many people who support the school and all of its achievements. The advertisement section is a type of recognition to those business people. They are truly a part of MHS.

After looking back at MHS, we, the 1972 Wagon Trails Staff, would like to thank all who have helped in the publication of this book. We would like to give a special thanks to Mr. Patchett and Mr. Keller for their patience throughout the year. Also a special thanks goes to Ken Keltner, our representative from Paragon Publishing Co., and Ron Gill, our Photographer. An extra thanks goes to Mr. New, our adviser, who gave us the guidance we needed throughout the year.

We hope that we have captured the memories of 1972 so that the students get a true picture as they look at MHS.

Sincerely,

Linda Perry
