

ALCO-GRAVURE
SECTION
VOL. 8. NO. 19

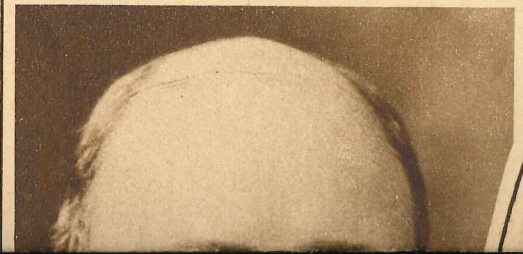

THE INDIANAPOLIS STAR

SUNDAY MORNING
MARCH 4 1928

Since the automobiles have gone far into the lead, horseshoes are principally used nowadays in pitching contests. (Hohenberger.)

Traffic cops at school No. 14, Indianapolis, in action. Walter Terry (left) and Clifton Moore. (Star Staff Photo.)

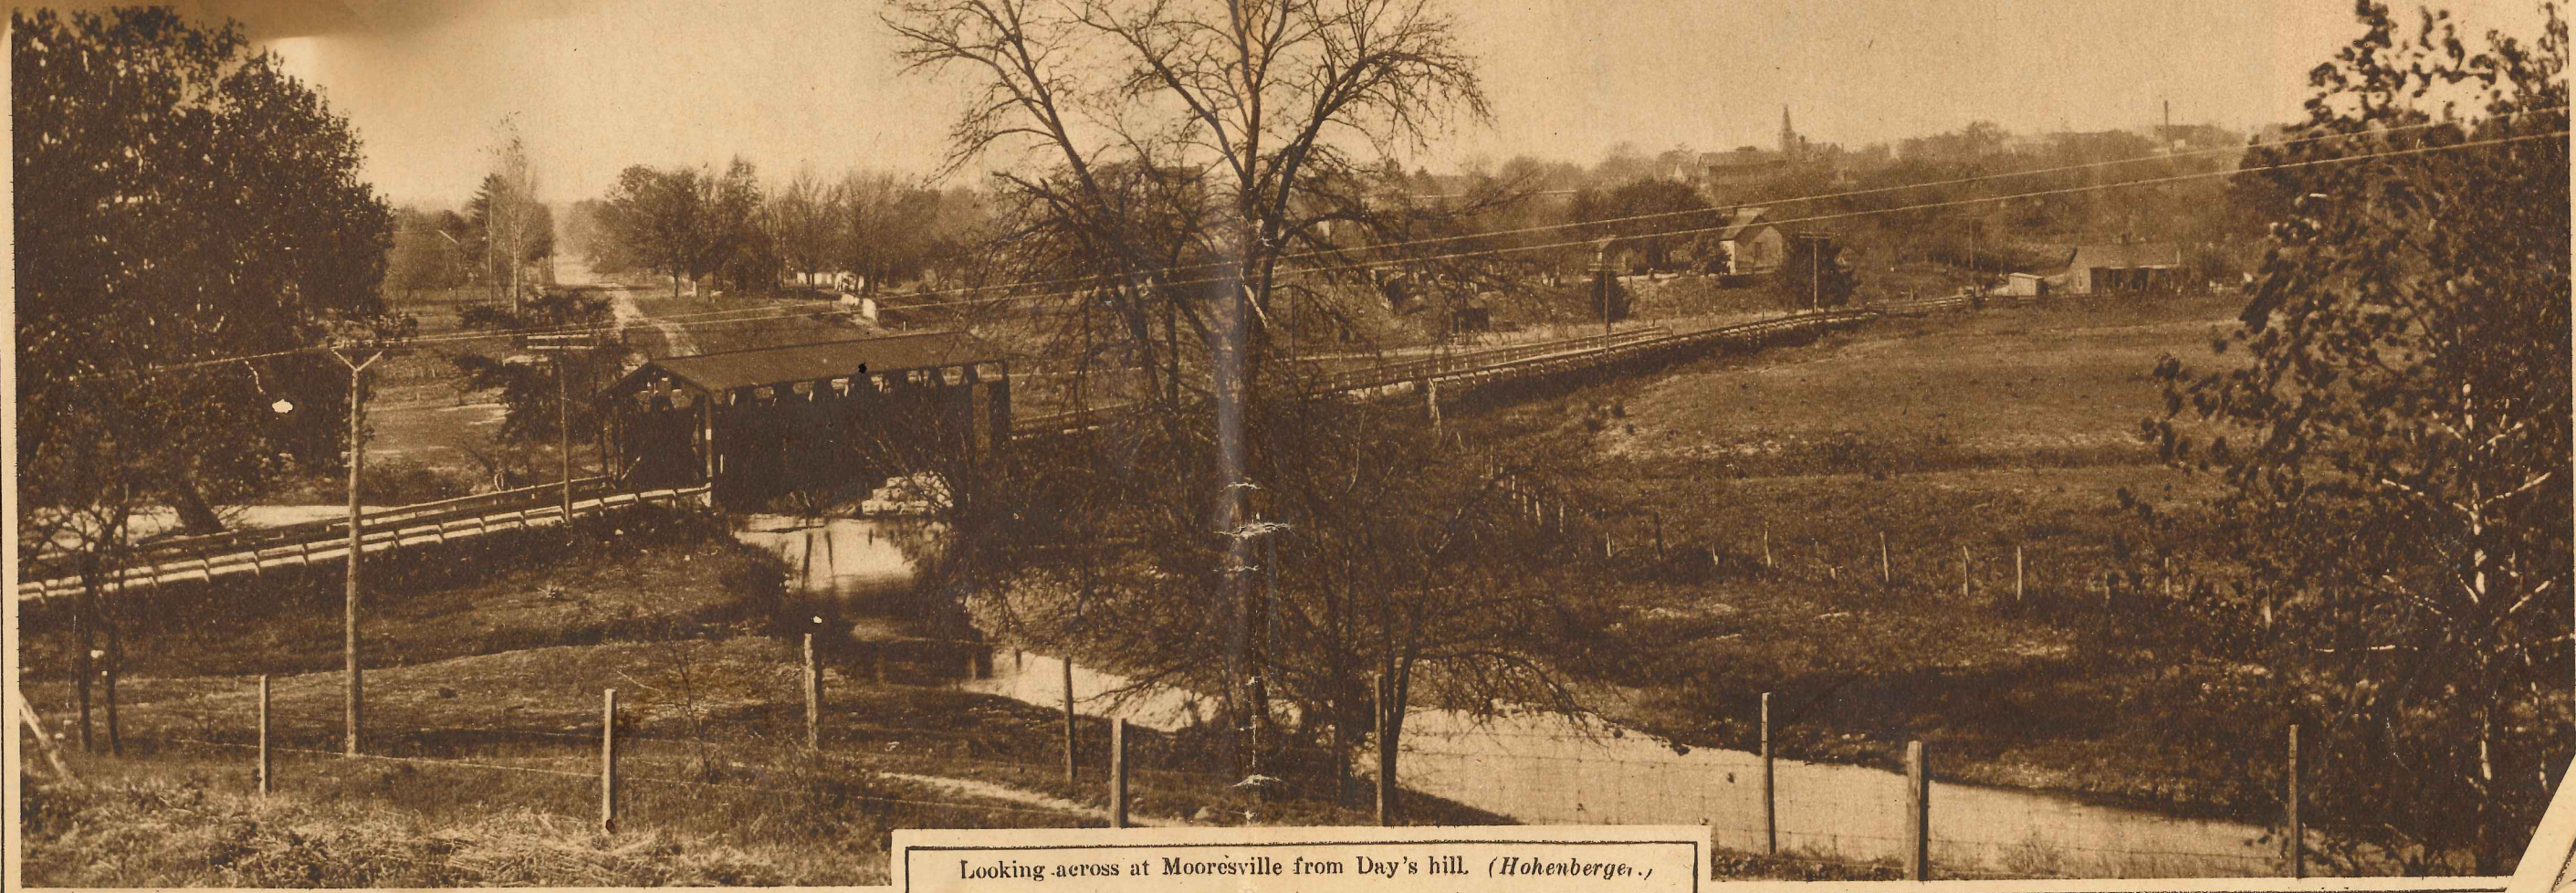

James M. Triggs, Huntington, new president of the Indiana State Y. M. C. A.

Maple sirup making time is about here. (Allen.)

The "Spirit of the American Doughboy," designed by E. M. Viquesney, Spencer. This statute is on the Owen county Courthouse grounds. (Hohenberger.)

Miss Diller Family

Looking across at Mooresville from Day's hill. (Hohenberger.)