

North Side of West Main Street
Mooresville, IN (Mid-1960s)

During the mid-1960s, the north side of West Main Street in downtown Mooresville was home to Nelson & Son Hardware, Leon Adler's Dept. Store, Harold Moore's AG Food Market, and Hayes Drugstore, whose soda fountain was a popular hangout for local teens.

Adler's as it looked in the 1951 Mooresville High School Wagon Trails yearbook.

Published by Mooresville Public Library
220 West Harrison Street
Mooresville, IN 46158
www.mooresvillelib.org

Copyright © 2009 by Mooresville Public Library. All Rights Reserved.

Flash From Your Past Historical Flash Card Series — Card #14

Dorothy and Charles Nelson owned Nelson & Son Hardware at 12 W. Main St. Charles and his father, William B. Nelson, purchased the business from Howard W. Lindley in 1944. Charles and Dorothy operated the store until their retirement in 1981. (Photograph excerpted from the Mooresville Times, Aug. 12, 1971).